

Label yourself in front of 10 most beautiful beaches in Italy

Italy is famous as a country full of poetic and romantic and indispensable contribution of beautiful beaches to ecstatic people. Which beaches are. Join us in this article right away.

Italy is famous as a country full of poetic and romantic and indispensable contribution of beautiful beaches to ecstatic people. Which beaches are. Follow us at the article below.

1. Puglia

Some of the most beautiful beaches in the Italian territory are in Puglia - located in the chain of pristine sandy beaches south of the historic town of Avetrana and Manduria. Here with white sand, clear blue sea and lunch are excellent seafood dishes, you will surely be conquered when you come to this dreaming beach.

2. San Fruttuoso, Liguria

If anyone ever went to Italy, surely not forgetting a perfect beach with a view of the idyllic small countryside, with a medieval monastery on the beach as the backdrop, this magical beach is called San Fruttuoso , in Liguria.

3. Tropea, Calabria

Calabria has nothing but dreamy beaches. In which Tropea is like a luxurious and impressive sea area in the region. There is an old town, with small shops, wreaths on the stone road that appear gently on the beach, covered with white sand, making travel space more romantic and warm. The food here stands out onion and squid, and most of all we recommend trying the most famous granita lemon in the region.

4. Viareggio, Tuscany

With a combination of history and style , Viareggio has been dubbed the most classic Italian coast with carefully placed umbrellas on the blue water, white sand beach, Belle Epoque mansion and hotels and resorts High-end surroundings help families enjoy an extremely enjoyable, perfect vacation.

5. San Vito lo Capo, Sicily

In addition to being a beautiful and poetic beach that attracts many tourists, San Vito lo Capo also leaves a mark on the visitors of local dishes such as couscous, even a special Cous Cous Fest only processed. in September.

In addition, you will experience a boat tour, stroll around the Zingaro nature reserve and the lovely village of Scopello, where the historic port and tuna fishing grounds are located .

6. Monte Argentario, Tuscany

Monte Argentario is a beach mecca for popular tourism for the summer, blessed by nature, with blue sea, white sand and cliffy 5-star hotels adjoining the beach. The most famous is the Hotel Il Pellicano with 50 rooms, the interior has six separate villas with a high-class Michelin restaurant, with an attractive rooftop restaurant. Below the house is a saltwater and hot water pool.

7. Vasto, Abruzzo

This is a poetic, peaceful beach, chosen by many families to travel to the sea. The beauty of this place looks like a painting.

8. Ischia

In addition to the green beach, dreamy white sand for tourists, Ischia is also famous as a beach offering sauna bathing services, the magnificent Mezzatorre Resort spa center and a high-class hotel with up to 57 Resort rooms and interesting salt and hot water swimming pools.

9. Capo Testa, Sardinia

Located on the northern tip of Sardinia, Capo Testa is an onion-shaped beach - like a small island - with a series of top scuba diving spots.

10. Chia, Sardinia

Chia is famous for this beach with narrow water creek, deserted coves and inspiring mountain views. In addition, the beach is widely divided with white sand and crystal clear water.

You finished reading the article "Label yourself in front of 10 most beautiful beaches in Italy" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
