Why can't I redeem coupons or codes sometimes?

Spelling mistakes are one of the reasons why your code is not accepted. It is best to copy the code in the code table above and paste it directly into the code redemption box. If you cannot copy it, enter each character correctly, the system distinguishes between uppercase and lowercase letters, so you need to enter it correctly to be able to redeem the reward.

Another common reason is that the code expires, usually the game code only lasts for a few days. So what you need to do is save our page or other official sources to update the code daily, avoid the code expiring.

How to get more game coupons, game codes

If you want to get more coupons or codes in Blue Archive, you can follow the official social networks such as X, Facebook, Discord or Youtube channels of game developers or gamers to catch up with new codes, especially during big events or holidays. Participating in game events is also a good way, because completing tasks or logging in daily often gives codes or even rewards directly to the mailbox.

In addition, the gaming community on Facebook, Discord, or Vietnamese forums to update codes from 'code hunters'. Don't miss the publisher's livestream on YouTube or Twitch, because they often release exclusive codes for viewers.

If you are patient, you can do in-game surveys or via email to receive reward codes from the development team. Remember that logging in every day not only accumulates resources but also sometimes receives surprise codes from continuous gifts. Small tip: redeem codes as soon as you receive them because they often expire quickly, and try entering strange codes to see if you are 'lucky'!

These methods will help you increase your chances of 'hunting' for codes, and enjoy Blue Archive to your heart's content. Have fun and good luck!
