

The latest Roblox codes for April and how to enter Roblox Promo Codes 2026

Roblox codes give players exclusive, one-of-a-kind in-game outfits.

Roblox gift codes grant players unique in-game outfits and other attractive items. These outfits and weapons are different from rewards redeemed through gift codes in other Roblox games because they are items you can use in any Roblox game.

How to enter Roblox codes

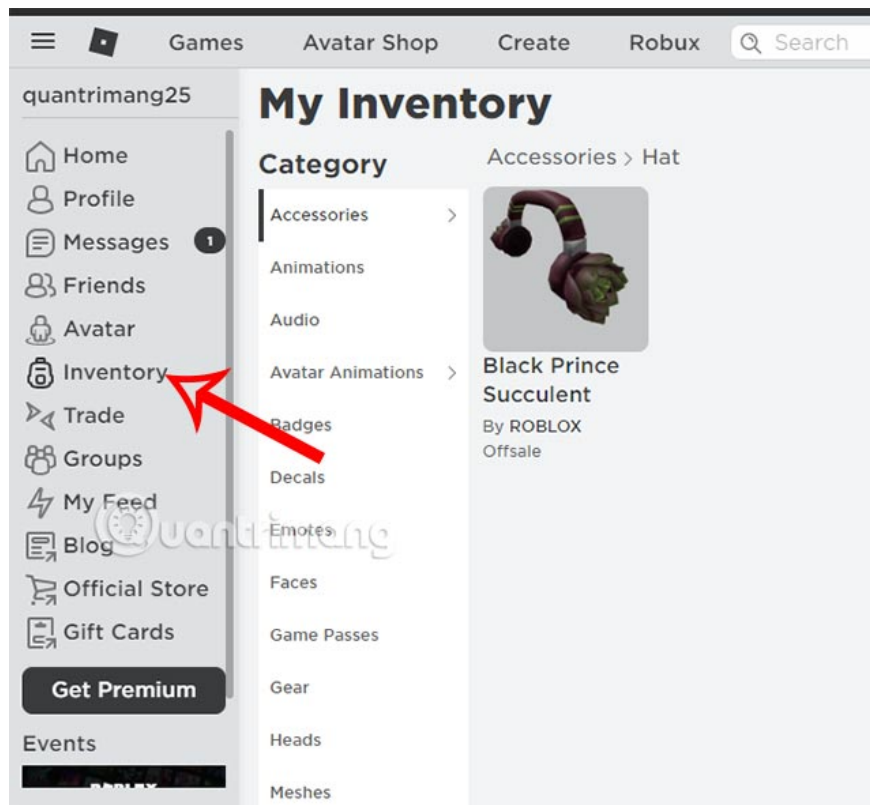

Step 1: Access the code redemption link below, log in to your Roblox account, and you will see a box that says "Enter Your Code." Enter the codes from the code table above into the code entry box to receive your gift.

If the code you entered is still valid, you will see the message "Promo code successfully redeemed" as shown in the image below.

Step 2: Next, to check the rewards you've received according to the code, click on the three horizontal lines icon in the upper left corner and select Inventory .

You'll get a preview of your character when you equip the received items; tap Wear to put them on.

Please note that each code can only be used once per account. If you use a code twice for the same account, the system will indicate that you have already used that gift code.
