Tips to help you climb rank quickly

1. Rank Iron

Those who belong to the "Rustic Corps" are often young and green, the number of generals is limited, so it is easy to get stuck in Hell Elo, but to pull Rank Iron up to Rank Bronze or higher is quite simple, because of the skills of those This rank is not too large.

Tips to play to win the match in Rank Iron this is that you must try to finish the match as soon as possible. If you take the road and win the battle, the enemy will be overwhelmed and quickly give up soon, advising you to choose a number of generals like Caitlyn, Pantheon and Talon, then concentrate on farming as much as possible. mine.

In general, when the enemy team is overwhelmed, they are easily mistaken and then take advantage of the mistakes that punish them. And you have to make fewer mistakes than your enemies and be aware of your opponent's mistakes, you will easily exit Rank Iron quickly.

2. Rank Dong

At this level, you will meet many players with more experience than Rank Iron, although knowledge and skills are still not good, but compared with Rank Iron, they are still more experienced.

Farms are considered an important and essential skill, not only in Rank Dong but also in other rank levels, if you do not farm well, you will lose a huge amount of gold, and so you will not capable of confronting those with money.

In order for the Farm to work effectively, you have to practice, this time the practice room will be the place where you need to go to practice the ability to last hit. You have to practice farming without equipment, which can be difficult but it will help you have more effective farming skills.

If you have improved the Farm ability, make use of all the gold earned to buy the best equipment and whether you can catch up or better than your opponent will not be too difficult. If you do not know how to map, you can refer to the websites that provide the best jade statistics and equipment like u.gg or probuilds.net .

3. Rank Silver

If you have climbed this ladder, it is considered that you have a basic knowledge of the game and have the average skill, a common rank in League. However Rank Silver does not have a specific plan for himself, so it is difficult to climb to the next rank.

There are three things you should pay attention to when traveling in any lane, that is:

1. Which generals are the rangers or melee heroes?
2. Is this general AP or AD general?
3. Is that general good at pushing sugar?

The reason for these three questions is that you should set up a game plan for yourself, melee generals often have a way to play more blood drier, while the general strikes them away from normal or bloody structures. Gunner generals often have more advantages in exchanging expansion skills.

As for wizards, they prefer to put on more damage, how much better you can push the way to determine how you can exchange moves with enemies, as well as those who go to the forest will interact well with the lane. that you are going. Keep playing like this and farm the best you can, making sure you get rid of the "silver shirt" quickly.

4. Rank Gold

Your level has started to go up quite well, when the yellow shirt, the skill of gamers is rated as good, but most gamers still lack experience in game tactics. And that is a very important thing, starting from this rank up.

Start learning how to play macro games, many people think that macros don't require high individual skills. Yes, you just need to choose to refine and know the importance of your team formation to be enough to raise you to the next rank.

At this point, breaking the pillar will sometimes be more important than eating the net or the dragon, because the pillar will open a map to better control the view. When you have control of the vision, you can make tactical decisions based on the position of the enemy squad.

If you like macros, choose locations like Top, Support, Jungle, which will help you see the overall map and make the most reasonable decision.

5. Rank Platinum

Coming here, your skills and knowledge of tactics are good, but at the moment these two will not determine whether or not you can get to Diamond. It is the attitude of playing the game, but there is also a simple factor, that is the number of times you "count up" in the game is more or not.

In this rank, you can show super fast and top combat battles, but keep in mind that your life will be more important than the gold you can get. One thing will happen similarly to your teammates, if your teammates are worse than you, consider whether to rush to save them while you're alone. If not, use ping to warn them, which will ensure that an individual's death will not affect the overall death of the team.

6. Rank Diamond

This is a common goal for all League players. When you reach Rank Diamond, you will be proud of your efforts, but you still need a little more to gain a rank of High Player.

Right now, the need to control the path is very important because the complexity of the road starts to be fully utilized by those who wear low Platinum and Diamonds. A time-shifting phase may cause your bag to drop hundreds of gold and not enough experience to reach the required level, while pushing a soldier to a bad position in the lane will make your soldiers Freeze or will make you gank.

At this rank, it is essential that you manage the lanes at all times in the game. You know when to focus on pushing the road or pushing odd and your strengths are extremely important. In addition, you need to save the transforming modifier, all of which can be a difference to help you or your enemy win. Sometimes, tiny little things can make a victory for themselves.
