

Lesson 23: Modals in Bootstrap 5

Modals in Bootstrap 5 are elements that display a popup window at the top of the current page. Below is how to create a dialog box or popup using Bootstrap 5.

Modals in Bootstrap 5 are elements that display a popup window at the top of the current page. Below is how to create a dialog box or popup using Bootstrap 5.

How to create a modal in Bootstrap 5

The following sample code shows how to create a basic modal:

Open modal

Modal Heading

- Modal body.

Close

For example:

Add effects

Use a class `.fade` to add a fade-in effect when opening and closing a modal:

Sample code:

For example:

```
Bootstrap Example
```

Example of a modal blur effect.

Click the button to open the modal.

Modal size

Change the size of a modal by adding a class `.modal-sm` for small modals (maximum width 300px), a class `.modal-lg` for large modals (maximum width 800px), or `.modal-xl` for extra-large modals (maximum width 1140px). The default maximum width is 500px.

Add a size class to the element with the class `.modal-dialog`:

Small modal:

For example:

By default, modals are medium-sized (maximum width 500px).

Full-screen modal

If you want the modal to extend across the entire width and height of the page, use the class `.modal-fullscreen`:

Sample code:

For example:

Full-screen modal

Click the button to open the modal in full screen.

Full-screen responsive modal

You can also control how the modal is fully displayed for each screen size, with the class `.modal-fullscreen--*`:

Class	Describe
<code>.modal-fullscreen-sm-down</code>	Full screen under 576px
<code>.modal-fullscreen-md-down</code>	Full screen under 768px
<code>.modal-fullscreen-lg-down</code>	Full screen under 992px
<code>.modal-fullscreen-xl-down</code>	Full screen under 1200px
<code>.modal-fullscreen-xxl-down</code>	Full screen under 1400px

Center of modal

Align modals vertically and horizontally on the same page using the class `.modal-dialog-centered`:

For example:

For example, centering a modal vertically.
