

Lien Quan Mobile: Instructions to counter Liliana from 'a to z'

Countering Liliana is the concern of many Lien Quan Mobile gamers because this is a quite comprehensive and extremely annoying Mage general.

Liliana is known as the most perfect Mage/Assassin general in the Mobile Union. Her advantage is that she owns almost everything, from the two fighting mechanisms of long-range and close-range attacks, fast damage and impressive attack speed. Moreover, Liliana has the ability to increase armor and magic armor, as well as being mobile and untargetable, dominating the ultimate move Transfiguration.

However, no one is absolutely perfect, so along with the formidable strengths mentioned above, this 'fox' still has many shortcomings for players to take advantage of. Firstly, Liliana's difficulty is very high and not easily accessible to the vast majority of players, so when facing her in the Mid lane, do your own research to see if Liliana's holder is really successful. proficient or not.

If that person is not 'best Liliana' then it will be easier for the gamer to fight because anyone who is not good at Liliana tends to fight in human form so that they can use Arc Bullet and Arc Force to clear minions and poke the opponent's blood. Moreover, 'immature' Liliana players are easy to get stuck while performing combos or transformations on this champion. This is a good time for you to crush your opponent! On the contrary, what should I do to counter the 'best Liliana'?

The phase where Liliana is weakest is during laning because until level 4 the player cannot Transform. However, this is also the time when Liliana owns an extremely annoying combo, which is Ho Quang Bullet and Ho Quang Luc, so it is necessary to limit the exchange of direct moves with Liliana. Instead, focus on clearing minions and poking her with blood if possible.

Finally, because Liliana is a major mid lane Mage, any champion facing a best Liliana in this area will have a hard time. As for teammates, thanks to the possession of two fighting mechanisms, ranged and close, as well as a variety of play styles, Liliana will be suitable for any team as long as this champion is the mainstay in the area. In conclusion, the champions that can best counter Liliana in the Mid lane will be cards like Lauriel, Krixi.
