

Lien Quan Mobile: Very cool map hack countermeasures that gamers should know

Lien Quan gamers can completely reverse the situation if they apply the best ways to overcome the most effective map hack right here.

Dubbed the number one MOBA game in Vietnam at the moment, it is not too difficult to understand when Lien Quan Mobile owns an extremely large number of players. However, from here, problems have gradually arisen, frauds have gradually morphed with unprecedented scale and manner.

Prominent among the frauds is the vision hack or best known as the Map Hack. This type of cheat gives gamers using it up to 90% win rate which leads to imbalance among gamers. Although Garena was very strong when he was ready for cheating gamers to "go to the island" for 100 years, everything was still in place. For the same reasons, gamers have passed on "secrets" to each other to be able to change and reduce the power of the map hack to be able to turn the tide.

Effective power reduction measures when encountering Lien Quan mobile map hack

Stop organizing to hide in the dust to catch enemy generals

In rank matches, this is an extremely familiar tactic to be able to suddenly raid to shock an enemy champion, thereby giving the home team an advantage in terms of numbers as well as the game. However, if the enemy team uses a hackmap, this strategy will simply be disabled, so from the position of "hiding" to cover the prey, you yourself will become the prey.

Keep the formation distance and support teammates.

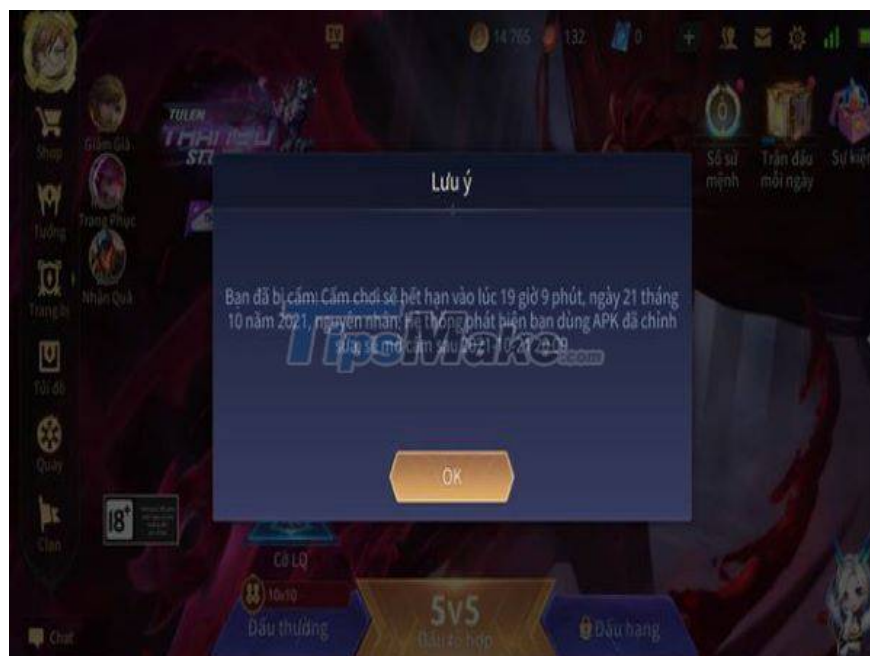

The common point of gamers who use map hacks is that they often prioritize the selection of assassin champions, magicians with good team carrying ability, plus the advantage of superior vision thanks to cheating, it must be said. too cool. Now your teammates, especially ADCs, Junglers or Mage, will be in a very dangerous situation, so prioritize supporting your teammates and be ready for counterattacks.

Prioritize controlling and defeating enemies to hack the map

This is a measure that contains a lot of risks, because cheaters often possess superior vision, so they are often ready for situations to sneak around to block soldiers and then escape. However, that is not to say that there is no way to "punish" the cheaters, it is best when you have the opportunity, you should prioritize using hard control effects to finish off the opponent.

Report fraud

Finally, the "hardest" and most effective measure. After finishing everything, quickly "donate" to the crook a ticket to report to the system of Lien Quan. Partly to not have to hug "extremely angry" and also to clean up the environment of this fascinating game.
