

Light but fun games on Windows 8

Windows 8 has not been compared to Android or iOS so far in terms of the number of applications. The latest statistics show that the Windows Store app market is currently only about 20,000. However, many of these softwares have appeared, including soft but very interesting games.

Windows 8 has not been compared to Android or iOS so far in terms of the number of applications. The latest statistics show that the Windows Store app market is currently only about 20,000. However, many of these softwares have appeared, including soft but very interesting games.

To play these games on Windows 8, go to the Store app on the startup screen, or press the Windows + Q key combination, then enter the game name to search and download.

Robotek

An interesting game on Adnroid of Hexage has been ported to Windows 8 surprisingly well. Robotek features a graphic blend of aesthetically pleasing neon colors and retro style combined with monumental sound effects.

In the game, you play the human race - with the help of your robots - struggling to regain the world from evil robots. This is a turn-based game and to conquer the game, you must pass all 200 levels.

Draw a Stickman Epic

Your first task in Draw A Stickman is to draw a character (stickman) and his friend (stick friend). Next, you will play the stickman role in the rescue of the stick friend who is imprisoned by a bizarre book with sharp fangs!

In the game, you will use a variety of pencils with different uses to draw tools to help stickman overcome obstacles and solve puzzles in the game.

With a new play style with simple and unique animated graphics, Draw A Stickman Epic will make sure you don't get out!

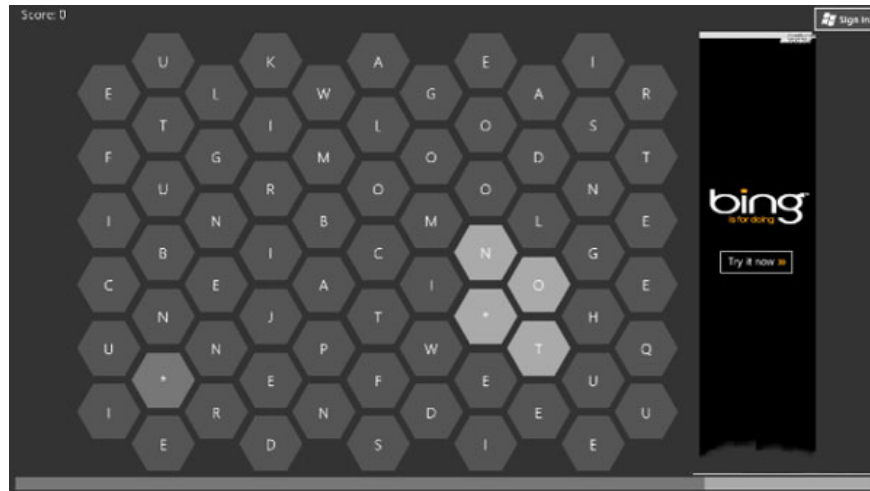

Fruit Ninja

At this point, surely no one knows about Fruit Ninja - a Halfbrick classic game.

Many fruits are thrown into the air and players will have to try to cut them in half. When you cut a lot of fruit in one hand sweep (combo) you will be rewarded with extra points but be careful not to touch the bombs! Windows 8 version has game modes: Classic, Arcade and Zen for $ 5.

Word Blast

Considered the perfect combination of Boggle (a character-matching game to make sense words) and Hexic (rotate a block of 6 bricks to create the same color clusters to eat points), Word Blast forces you to must search for meaningful words in a sea of ??characters to complete the task of achieving the minimum score before the time runs out. Each word found increases the score and adds a few seconds to your time.

Whenever you 'know' , rotate a block of 6 characters to open up new moves.

Totemo

Another Hexage game - your mission in Totemo is that you have to rely on the number of floors to light up on the left hand side, if the statue has 3 floors, you have to light 3 souls side by side in the same row. (or column) to free them.

When you touch any soul, that soul will glow. Besides, you can swipe along straight or vertical lines to light up with very nice effects. The game ends when there are no souls available. How to play simple but to be able to win 100 levels of this great puzzle game you need to calculate carefully right from the first move.

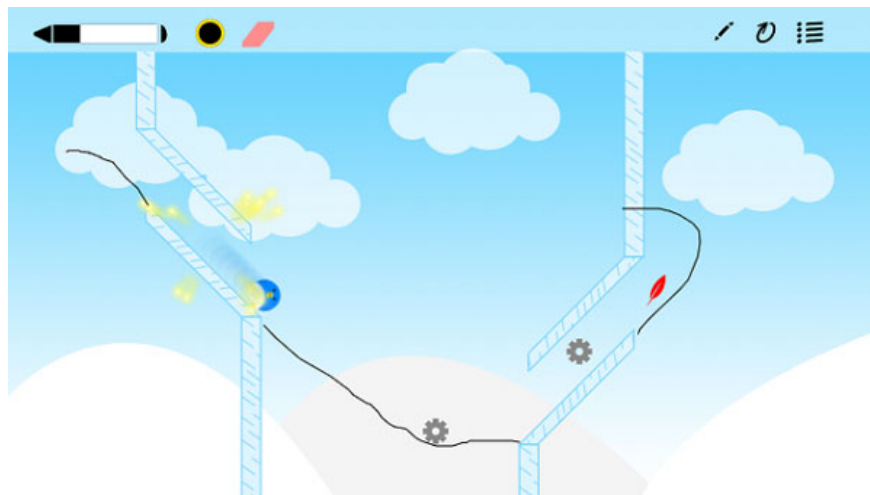

Jellyfish

Jellyfish - Tentacle Debacle game brings you to an underwater world with beautiful views, colorful reefs and . polluted water areas in harbors!

Jelly is a small jellyfish, wandering in the great ocean in a state of starvation and defenselessness. He lays a lot of eggs and the eggs need to be protected. You will join Jelly in the survival battle and help him protect his eggs from polluted streams as well as terrifying predators. Usually you have to juggle many eggs at the same time to keep them from every threat.

Inkarus

Looking at Inkaru's fat, resilient form, you easily find out it's not an ordinary bird - he can't fly!

Even so, Inkarus still aspires to fly like many other birds, and he starts dreaming about a machine that can help him fulfill his wishes. To do that, it has to gather all the gears and feathers in the game screen.

Your mission is to help Inkarus by drawing lines on the screen for it to 'roll freely' through items it needs to collect and not let it fall straight to the ground! It sounds easy but when you play, you will know the difficulty of this game!
