With a formidable team, you can then enter the battlefield and defeat your enemies with amazing attacks and combos. However, with so many powerful units, choosing the best one can be difficult. Don't worry, the ranking of all the characters in Anime Saga below will help you easily choose the best units .

Anime Saga has a small set of units because this is just the beginning of an amazing action experience with some famous anime characters. The tier list has the rarest and most dominant units in S-Tier. Here is the tier list of Anime Saga characters:

1. S-Rank: Frierin, Zid, Chainsaw, Rohan, Zoru
2. A-Level: Doma, Okorun, Inos, Mochi, Agony
3. B-rank: Vogita, Nezu, Sake
4. Level C: Sanjo, Ichigan, Itaduro, Tanjigo
5. D-rank: Roku, Ussoap, Noroto, Luffy

S-rank character unit

This is the highest tier and therefore includes some of the best units in the entire game. They can deal a lot of damage, with less cooldowns with the best combos. Among all the units in S tier, Frierin and Zid stand out for their good attacks & AoE. Furthermore, Zoru and Rohan belong to this category because of their special attacks, such as the two-sword style Onigiri and the super Kamehameha.

Unit	Rarity
Frierin	Mythic
Zid	Mythic
Chainsaw	Mythic
Rohan	Legendary
Zoru	Legendary

A-level character unit

Next up is the A tier, which also has some pretty cool units. However, these units seem to lack a bit in terms of movement and stats, so they can't be ranked higher. There are two Mythics, Doma and Okarun, who have good crowd control abilities, but you can always use Rohan and Zoru as they work better in this aspect. Finally, Inos, Mochi, and Agony have similar crowd control moves that can help you deal damage to a bunch of enemies at once.

Unit	Rarity
Domain	Mythic
Okorun	Mythic
Inos	Legendary
Mochi	Legendary
Agony	Legendary

B-level character unit

Coming to B-tier or mid-tier, we only have three units – Vogita, Nezu, and Sake, each with their own strengths. Vogita is just a weaker Rohan and is good at beam attacks. Nezu, on the other hand, has a great combo that can quickly defeat enemies in the early stages. Lastly, Sake is the only unit in the Anime Saga that has an electric attack that stuns enemies.

Unit	Rarity
Vogita	Epic
Nezu	Epic
Sake	Epic

C-level character unit

Anime Saga has a number of Epic and Rare characters that you can definitely unlock early in the game. The characters in this category and below are only useful early on. While Sanjo and Tanjigo can help control the enemy crowd, Ichigan and Itaduro have large-scale attacks that can take down players in a split second.

Unit    Rarity

Sanjo    Epic

Ichigan Rare

Itaduro Rare

Tanjigo Rare

D-rank character unit

Down in the D tier of the Anime Saga ranking list, there are some of the worst units. Out of all of them, Roku is probably the best unit due to his awesome Kamehameha and burst attack. However, other units like Usop, Noroto, and Luffo don't have enough damage and have higher cooldowns. Therefore, you should roll for other higher ranked units as soon as possible.

Unit    Rarity

Roku    Rare

Usop    Epic

Noroto Rare

Luffy    Rare
