New Year's Day 2019 can take a few days off?

This year's Tet holiday 01/01/2019 falls on Tuesday. Expected to take a second break and calculate the previous Saturday and Sunday, we will be on holiday for the New Year 2019 4 days . It will then make up on Saturday, January 5, 2019. However, there are some agencies and units still working on Saturday or half of Saturday, the 2019 year-off period will be shortened, only 3.5 or 3 days.

Lunar New Year Calendar 2019 Ky Hoi

In the previous years, according to the Labor Code, employees will be entitled to a Tet holiday in about 5 days, from the last day of the old year to the end of the fourth day, ie from December 29 (lack of month.) or December 30 through the fourth day of the Lunar New Year. In the last few years, the Ministry's regulations have changed, workers will be off for 2 days before Tet, helping the rural workers to return home to celebrate Tet.

This year, employees can get a Lunar New Year holiday of 9,99 days from December 28, the year of Mau Tuat 2018 (Saturday, February 2, 2019) to the end of January 6, the year of Ky Hoi 2019 (ie Sunday, February 10, 2019 solar calendar).

Calendar holidays April 30, May 1, 2019

Currently there are 2 options for taking 30/4 and May 1 in 2019 as follows:

Option 1: Only take 2 days of April 30 and May 1 (ie Tuesday and Wednesday) as usual.

Option 2: Stay 5 days, from Saturday (April 27, 2019) to the end of Wednesday (May 1, 2019), then make up for the next Saturday.
