

Manage and control USB with USB Flash Drives Control

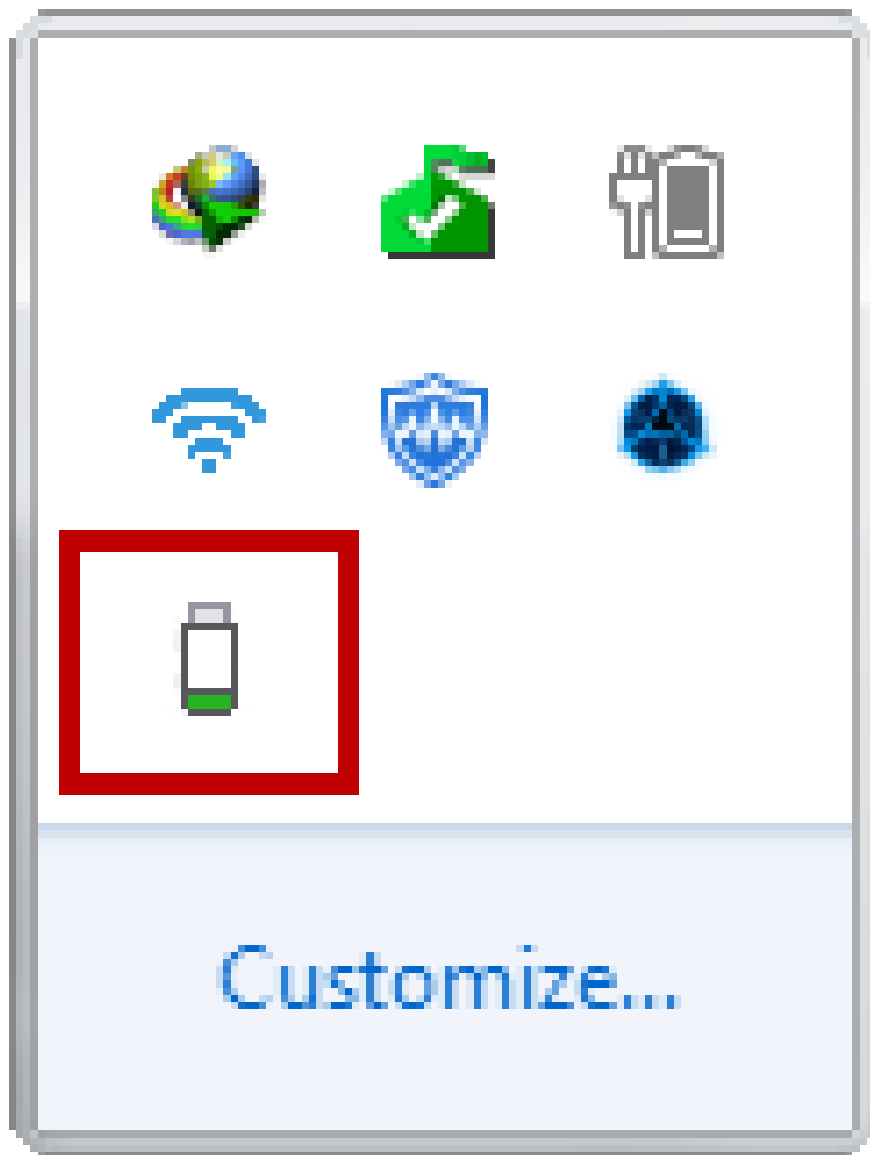

Using USB Flash Drives Control software, you can control, manage operations and actions when USB is used on the computer, helping the computer to avoid viruses, malware on USB.

Frequently using USB to move and store data, USB used on many computers, you will not control the content, malware containing viruses in USB.

Using USB Flash Drives Control software, you can control, manage operations and actions when USB is used on the computer, helping the computer to avoid viruses, malware on USB.

Step 1: First you need to download and install the USB Flash Drives Control software.

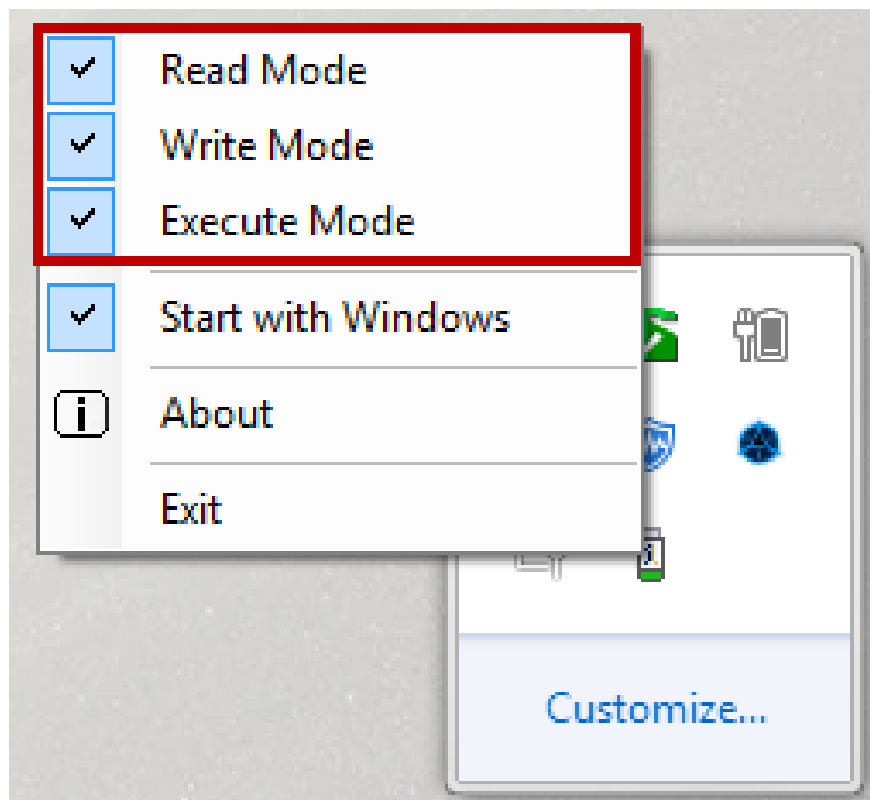

Step 2: Run the software on the system, the software displays the icon under the computer system tray.

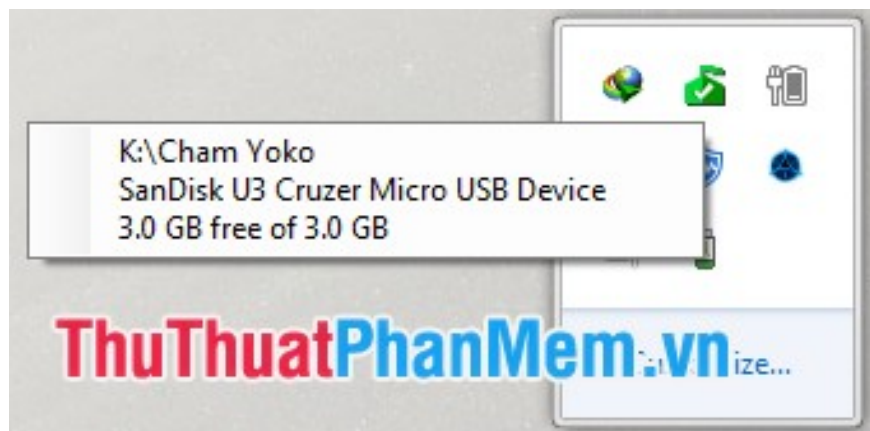

Step 3: To select USB operations, right-click the USB Flash Drives Control software icon under the system tray. The software gives you 3 options:

- Read Mode: read only.
- Write Mode: only write.
- Execute Mode: completely disabled.

If you choose Start with Windows , the software will always start up with the system.

In addition, you can also view information about the USB device connected to the computer by left clicking on the icon of USB Flash Drives Control under the system tray.

Step 4: To exit the software, right-click the software icon under the system tray and select Exit .

Thus, with USB Flash Drives Control software you can control and manage operations when using USB effectively.

You finished reading the article "Manage and control USB with USB Flash Drives Control" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.