

Microsoft is about to death Windows Phone 7.8

Microsoft posted a reminder that Windows Phone 7.8 will stop supporting after September 9.

Microsoft posted a reminder that Windows Phone 7.8 will stop supporting after September 9.

That means that after 9/9, Windows Phone 7.8 will not receive any upgrade or performance improvements. However, security updates are still supported for the following year.

Windows Phone 7.8 is about to stop supporting

Most people will switch to new phones running Windows Phone 8.1 instead of continuing to use devices that are too old.

The list also shows that Windows 7 operating system ( currently installed on most computers ) will also run out of support on January 13, 2015. Extended support will end on January 13, 2020.

Windows 7 Enterprise	Mainstream Support ends January 13, 2015.
Windows 7 Enterprise N
Windows 7 Home Basic
Windows 7 Home Premium
Windows 7 Professional
Windows 7 Professional N
Windows 7 Starter
Windows 7 Starter N
Windows 7 Ultimate
Windows 7 Ultimate N
Windows Embedded Handheld 6.5	Mainstream Support ends January 13, 2015.
Windows Phone 7.8	Mainstream Support ends September 9, 2014.

Calendar stopped updating for Windows Phone 7.8 and Windows 7

Are you still using a Windows Phone 7.8 device and do you plan to upgrade to a Windows Phone 8.1 product?

You finished reading the article "Microsoft is about to death Windows Phone 7.8" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.