

Microsoft released Windows 10 KB4088776, has an offline installer, advising users to install it now

Cumulative update KB4088776 was recently sent to Windows 10 Fall Creators Update by users (version 1709) to fix some outstanding bugs affecting the security and performance of the operating system.

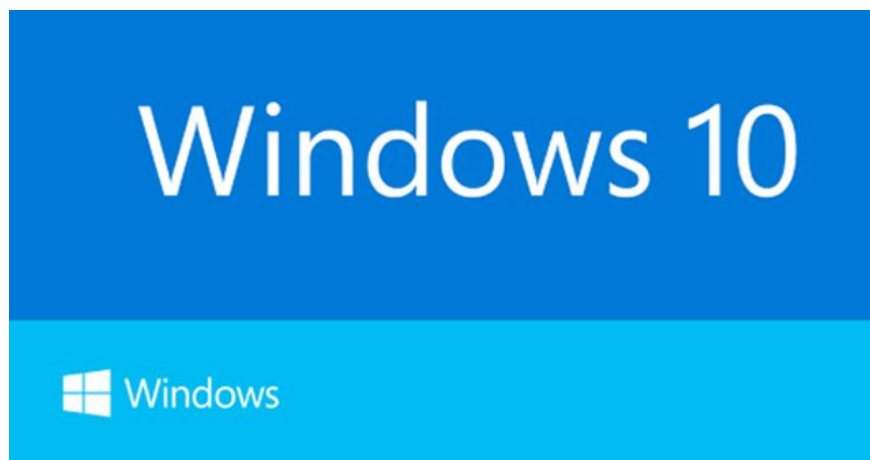

Cumulative update KB4088776 was recently sent to Windows 10 Fall Creators Update by users (version 1709) to fix some outstanding bugs affecting the security and performance of the operating system while significantly improving the performance. productivity. Especially this cumulative update includes Offline Installer.

Feature highlights of Windows 10 KB4088776

1. KB4088776 includes improvements to its predecessor update.
2. Thorough handling of long-standing unpleasant incidents still exists on Internet Explorer and Microsoft Edge browsers.
3. Improved security for necessary applications, typically Microsoft Scripting Engine, Internet Explorer, Microsoft Edge, Device Guard, Windows Hyper-V, Windows Installer, Microsoft Scripting Engine, Windows MSXML, Windows Desktop Bridge, Windows Kernel and Windows Shell .

As for Microsoft, the company also recommends that users should quickly update this version because it will greatly improve the performance of the machine.

After successfully updating Windows 10 KB4088776, your operating system will be Windows 10 build 16299.309 .

Windows 10 Fall Creators Update users can download and install the cumulative update package KB4088776 via the offline installer (Offline installer) without the Internet: Microsoft Update Catalog.

Or users can update to Windows 10 build 16299.309 via Windows Update by visiting Settings -> selecting Update & Security -> selecting Windows Update -> clicking Check for Updates to update the search itself, download and install the update.

See more:

1. It is possible to experience tabbed browsing with Explorer file on Windows 10
2. Microsoft released Windows 10 build 17115 for Insider Fast, fixing a series of big and small errors
3. Windows 10 vulnerability from Cortana helps hackers open unauthorized malicious websites and how to fix them
4. 4 ways to fix when problems do not find Windows Store on Windows 10

You finished reading the article "Microsoft released Windows 10 KB4088776, has an offline installer, advising users to install it now" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.