

More than 5000 iPhone 6 smuggled into Russia

About 5,000 iPhone 6 and iPhone 6 Plus mobile phones are smuggled into Russia a few days before the phone officially sells.

About 5,000 iPhone 6 and iPhone 6 Plus mobile phones are smuggled into Russia a few days before the phone officially sells.

Editor-in-chief of the Russian Hi-Tech Mail.Ru technology site, Anton Spiridonov, said about 1,500 of the total of 5,000 pirated iPhone 6 and iPhone 6 Plus were sold in Russia from September 19-20. Meanwhile, about 40,000 smuggled iPhone 5s and iPhone 5c were sold at black markets in Russia last year when the semi-official time here was delayed by 1 month.

Spiridonov said the price of the iPhone 6 and iPhone 6 Plus is about $ 2,600 in the black market, while Apple credits in Russia will only pay about $ 828 for the iPhone 6 and $ 957 for the iPhone 6 Plus when the two models was officially sold from September 26.

iPhone 6 with 4.7 inch screen and iPhone 6 Plus with 5.5 inch screen is bigger than 4 inch screen of iPhone 5s. New iPhone models are also equipped with improved cameras, longer battery life and faster processors.

The two models iPhone 6 and iPhone 6 Plus are officially sold from September 19 in 10 countries around the world, including the US, Australia, England, Singapore, .

You finished reading the article "More than 5000 iPhone 6 smuggled into Russia" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.