A special feature of Naraka Bladepoint is that players will use melee weapons such as knives, swords, bows, even guns and cannons, but will combine with specific skills according to each character class.

You and 59 other players will have the same starting point, empty-handed. You will be able to choose one of seven champions in a three-person team or solo 1v1. Instead of looking for ARs, SMGs, extended magazines, silencers, etc., you will be looking for spears, daggers, katanas and a lot of related tools like bandages, and Souljades magic jewelry to support more. intrinsic to the character.

Characters in Naraka Bladepoint

There are 7 characters in Naraka Bladepoint which are Matari, Tarka Ji, Kurumi, Yoto Hime, Viper Ning, Temulch and Tianhai.

The skills of the generals in Naraka are somewhat similar to the generals in League of Legends. Each character in Naraka has unique skills with many properties such as healing, supporting teammates, stealth, teleportation, defense, turning into giants, dealing massive damage.

Each character skill set of the generals in the game will have properties that support the specific nature of that character. Players can choose characters with skills that match their playstyle.

Weapons in the game

Unlike many BR games that can have more than 100 different weapons. Naraka Bladepoint only focuses on 9 types of melee and ranged weapons. It's important that you try out every weapon first to determine which one suits your playstyle best. Each weapon is designed to offer a unique fighting style that, if paired with the right character, will increase the likelihood of victory in any skirmish.

Melee Weapons

The melee weapons included in Naraka include

1. Love
2. Sword School
3. Great Sword
4. Katana

Thuong has the ability to combine with skills and create good combos, Truong Sword is very suitable for new players because of its few complex combos and good attack range.

The Great Sword is heavy and slow, but the damage is quite large, if used correctly with the character it can create scary damage combos. Katana is considered a fairly balanced sword in the melee group because of its lightness, agility, but not as much damage as the weapons above. If combined with Souljades, Katana will be able to increase strength.

Ranged Weapons

1. Arquebus
2. Bow
3. Crossbow
4. Cannons

5. Pistol

The muskets are like sniper rifles in other shooting games, but the reload speed is quite slow so you have to be more careful in combat.

As for the Crossbow, this is like a rifle when it has a fast rate of fire but a small amount of damage. If combined with characters who have the ability to move flexibly, this is really an extremely dangerous weapon.

The Bow is somewhat similar to the Musketeer, however the Bow's damage is weaker but can fire more shots in a short time. If you are not a good aimer, you can choose Bow instead of muskets.

Cannons seem to be the weapon that deals the most damage at a glance. But you can hardly kill the opponent with just one shot because they can dodge the bullet from the cannon. Cannon should be used when following a team because this weapon supports pretty good damage, and if solo 1v1, Cannon is not an ideal weapon.

The pistol is not an ideal weapon for beginners, it needs to be reloaded before it can be fired. Although the damage is large, it will require a lot of flexible aiming and moving skills from the player.
