

Nokia 6660 leak: Square border design is more beautiful than iPhone 13 Pro Max, competitive price

The images of Nokia 6600 leaked today and scored with a beautiful design similar to the iPhone 13 Pro Max and the most powerful configuration of the Android smartphone village.

A high-end phone is what many users have been waiting for Nokia to hit the market since the brand came under the management of HMD Global. Recently, this wish has been partially fulfilled with the render images of the Nokia 6660. This is Nokia's high-end smartphone with a series of new and most powerful features at the beginning of 2022.

Nokia 6660 design

Accordingly, Nokia 6660 appeared on social networks in the form of a design inspired by the most famous smartphone on the market, the iPhone 13 Pro Max. The design of the Nokia 6660 stands out with square edges instead of curved edges. The system of buttons to increase and decrease the volume of Nokia 6660 is also separate and floating on the border like the iPhone 4.

The camera cluster of Nokia 6660 is also designed quite nicely and is less protruding on the body. This gives users the most compact premium phone.

Nokia 6660 hardware configuration

The screen of the new 6660 promises to be Samsung's E5 type. This is a high-end monitor with an adaptive refresh rate of 144 Hz, a resolution of up to 2K, and an overall brightness of 2000nit.

In addition, the screen of the new Nokia 6660 also adopts a slightly curved screen design, the screen glass is raised to the body, very friendly to gesture control, but it also has the disadvantage of being fragile when dropped.

Inside, Nokia 6660 uses Qualcomm's Snapdragon 8 Gen 1 chip - the most powerful 5G support chip currently on the market. To catch up with the iPhone 13 Pro Max, the Nokia 6660 is expected to come with 12GB of RAM and 2TB of storage.

The new Nokia 6660 will also have a main camera of up to 200MP, a super wide-angle camera of 100MP and a telephoto camera of 50MP. The periscope solution is also applied so that the camera module can be neatly arranged without too much protrusion on the body.

Selling price of Nokia 6660 VND

With what Nokia 6660 shows, its expected price in China - where Nokia's main production will be may be around 5000 yuan, this price, the new Nokia 6660 has enough competitive advantage with the iPhone 13 Pro. Max as well as many other great Android competitors like Xiaomi 12 Pro or realme GT2 Pro. Hopefully Nokia will soon launch a high-end smartphone like Nokia 6660 this year.
