

Nokia 7.1 has just launched, Snapdragon 636, 4GB RAM, dual camera, priced from 349 USD

Nokia 7.1, Nokia's latest mid-range smartphone has just been officially launched (according to previous leaked information, this product is called Nokia 7.1 Plus) at the event in London.

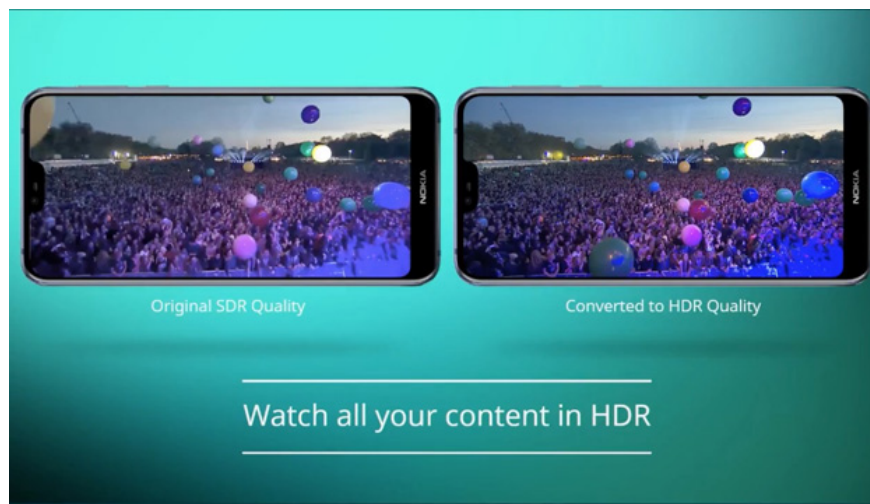

Nokia 7.1 has just been officially launched by Finnish technology firm HMD Global at the event in London (according to previous leaked information, this product is called Nokia 7.1 Plus). This is the latest mid-range smartphone of the company, equipped with new technologies on the screen, Zeiss imaging solution and a new generation of designs to give users the best experience.

Here are the details of the Nokia 7.1 smartphone.

Similar models Nokia 6.1 Plus was launched last year, front and back use toughened glass and metal frame. The 'rabbit ears' screen is quite small. The Nokia 7.1 chin is thicker than the Nokia 6.1 Plus.

Nokia 7.1 has a 5.84-inch LCD screen with Full HD + resolution, 19: 9 ratio and is equipped with Pure Display technology to enhance the user experience of the screen. In addition, the Nokia 7.1 screen is also supported with HDR10 technology for a smoother video experience and can convert display content from SDR to HDR in real time.

Dual camera cluster on the back of the device has a resolution of 12 MP and 5 MP, respectively, to support photographic deletion of fonts. In addition, the camera is also integrated dual focus technology to help capture images faster and more accurately.

Nokia 7.1 can capture images simultaneously with both front and rear cameras with the "bothie" feature equipped on the front camera.

Nokia 7.1 is equipped with a Qualcomm Snapdragon 636 processor that saves power. Machine with optional RAM of 3 GB or 4 GB corresponding to internal memory of 32 GB or 64 GB. Battery capacity is 3,060 mAh, supporting fast charging technology via USB-C port.

Nokia 7.1 is available on Android 8.1 platform and will be updated to Android Pie 9.0 in November.

Nokia 7.1 is expected to be sold on October 28 for between EUR 299 (about 8 million) with 3GB / 32GB version and 4GB / 64GB version of EUR 349 ??(about 9.3 million).

Nokia 7.1 has two colors to choose from: black and silver.

See more:

1. Nokia 3310 Russian-American version made of titanium and 24K gold, priced at 2,610 USD
2. How much Ram is enough with an Android smartphone?
3. Top 10 smartphones with the slimmest screen today

You finished reading the article "Nokia 7.1 has just launched, Snapdragon 636, 4GB RAM, dual camera, priced from 349 USD" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.