In Nhat Cuong (Hanoi), the first store to bring N8 to Vietnam, this device is still at 15.5 million, while last week it sold for nearly 18 million.

Meanwhile, many big stores in HCM City have announced last week, bringing the N8 to sell. The overall price of this 12 Megapixel mobile phone is 12.5 million, cheaper than in Hanoi to 3 million.

Nokia N8 genuine goods in Vietnam must take another one to two weeks to get goods, the selling price is 10.5 million dong, accompanied by the advantages for the pre-orderers. Some retail systems have helped customers sign up for purchases from the end of last week.

A owner of a N8 shop with a laptop on Tran Quang Khai street said that the price of genuine N8 in Vietnam is very good. The fact that they bring a few portable N8 copies with the highest price to meet "gut" customers, want to soon own this device, on the other hand, also explore the market with many smartphones mentioned in the year. now on.

At the price of 12.5 million, N8 has many competitors on the outer segment such as Samsung Galaxy S, iPhone 3GS . However, this price is still higher than the models with the speed of 1GHz which has lowered the price like HTC HD2. , Sony Ericsson Xperia X10, HTC Desire is currently selling at around 10 million dong.

Nokia's mobile phone is considered good photography.

Mr. Le Hoang (Dong Da - Hanoi), a person who soon owned the N8 said that those who love Nokia's persistence and want to experience the entertainment and photography features, the background chooses N8. " Using it for more than 3 days, I found the N8 to lose to the iPhone, the design is normal, the touch, the interface is not superior. However, the most interesting thing is taking pictures, this is the best camera phone I've ever had. see ", Mr. Hoang commented.

In addition, the ability to connect to the TV via a simple HDMI port, a good gaming machine is the first impression that Mr. Hoang feels satisfied. However, Symbian ^ 3 on N8 still has not many applications, a number of non-games and applications follow, " N8 is less software, compared to iPhone and Android, " Hoang said.

In the future, in addition to N8, there will be a series of multi-function smartphones launched. HTC is about to unveil the Desire Z and Desire HD duo, in addition a series of devices running Windows Phone 7 last year also appear. Last week, the T-Mobile G2 (Desire Z version) also has portable goods in Vietnam, the price of this model is 13.5 million.
