

Office 365 'landed' the Vietnamese market

Microsoft announced to bring the Office 365 online office application to 38 new markets, including Vietnam.

Microsoft announced to bring the Office 365 online office application to 38 new markets, including Vietnam.

According to Neowin , Office 365 is a web-based office suite that includes popular applications: Word, Excel, SharePoint, Outlook . allowing users to view and edit documents on a variety of devices. Internet connection available.

Office 365 has officially "landed" the Vietnamese market

This means that in addition to PCs and laptops, users can use Office 365 on smartphones ( smartphones ) and tablets ( tablets ).

With Microsoft bringing Office 365 to 38 new markets, Office 365 now supports a total of 127 countries and territories worldwide.

The newly supported countries and territories Office 365 include: Vietnam, Philippines, Thailand, Lebanon, Jamaica, Bolivia, Brunei, Nicaragua, Honduras, Albania, Armenia, Moldova, Mongolia, Zimbabwe, Barbados .

You finished reading the article "Office 365 'landed' the Vietnamese market" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.

---