

Open DNS - How to change DNS Open to access the network faster and not blocked

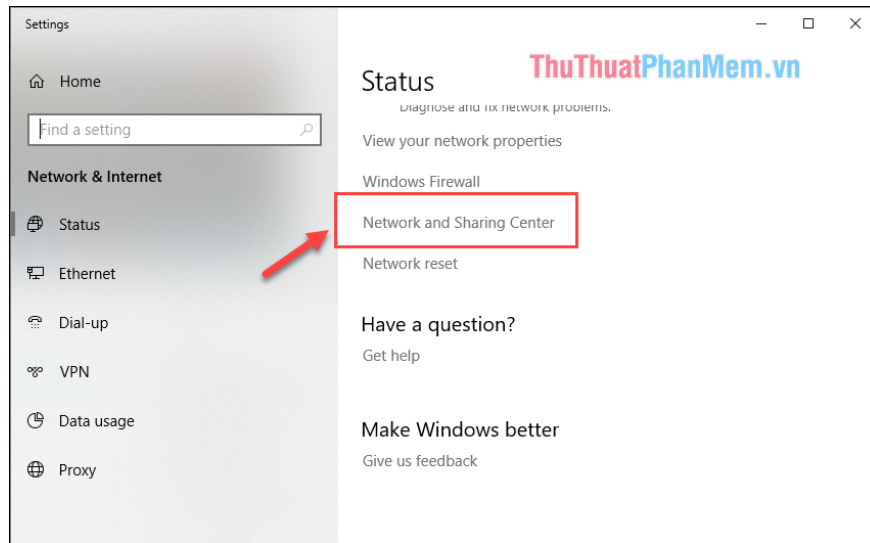

Open DNS - How to change DNS Open to access the network faster and not blocked. This article TipsMake.com will guide you how to change to OPEN DNS with just a few simple steps.

In the course of using the internet, there will be times when you may find that the internet speed is slower than normal or there are some websites you cannot access due to being blocked in your country. There are many ways to overcome this, in which changing DNS is the most effective way, it can both help you increase the speed of surfing the web and can help you access some blocked websites. This article TipsMake.com will guide you how to change to OPEN DNS with just a few simple steps, invite you to track!

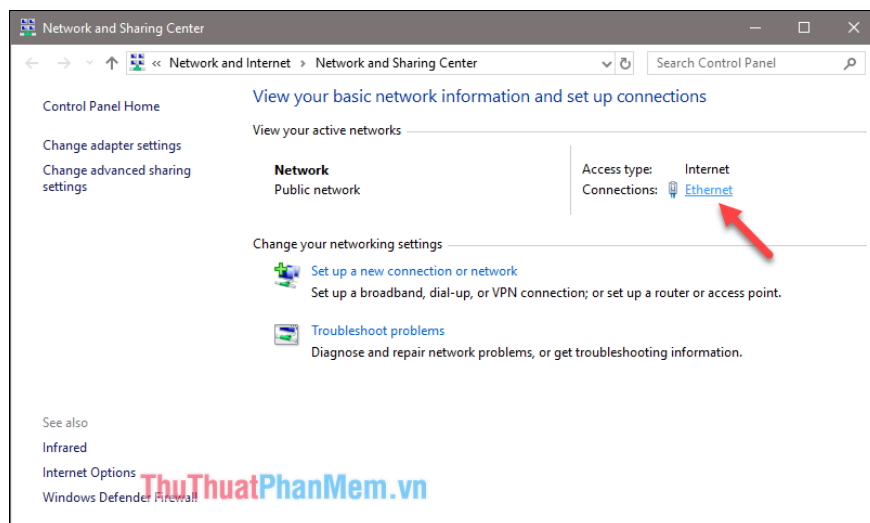

Step 1: Right-click on the internet connection icon and then select Open Network & Internet settings.

Step 2: The settings window appears, scroll down and select Network and Sharing Center.

Step 3 : Click on the name of the Connections .

Step 4 : A new window appears, select Properties.

Step 5 : Double click on Internet Protocol Version 4 (TCP / Ipv4).

Step 6 : Click the box Use the following DNS server addresses.

Then enter OPEN DNS as shown below and then click OK .

So we have changed OPEN DNS successfully with just a few simple steps, hoping this method will help to increase the surfing speed for you. Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Open DNS - How to change DNS Open to access the network faster and not blocked" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.