What is Palword game?

Palword is a survival action game developed and published by Pocketpair, launching Early Access version on January 19, 2024.

The game will take players into an open world with creatures called "Pal". Players will have to build bases, collect resources and fight with the support of Pals of all different types.

Because the Pals in the game have many similar elements to POKEMON, some people jokingly call Palworld a "shooting POKEMON" game.
