Today, accidentally surfing the web for an interesting article by Pete Lacey, the article begins in an incredibly strange way. And even more surprised when dragging down, all are just three letters b, l, a put together, combined with some pictures that seem to be ineffective. However, there are many readers who have praised this article very subtly, and the first design that they can understand most clearly.

Below is an excerpt from the original article. Use Designer's eyes and thinking to read this article, if you understand it, you are exactly a Designer!
