

Places for 'blood battle' gamers in PUBG

On PUBG there will be a number of locations for gamers to show their shooting skills for survival war.

On ROS or PUBG games, there are always hot and dangerous places that many players often avoid to be able to preserve their lives. However, there are many gamers who want to show their shooting skills, tactics, so they will choose the 'fire pan' locations to try their best.

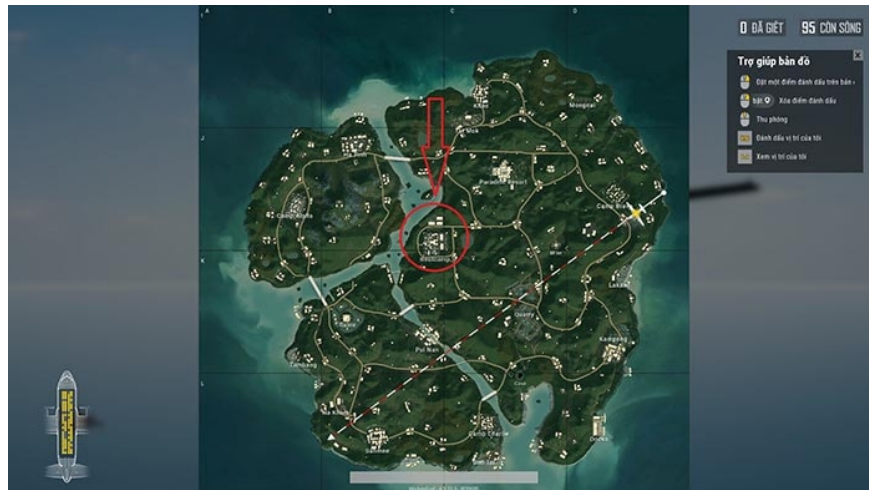

PUBG owns Sanhok map where there are extremely attractive places if you want to level, as well as your skills with other gamers. If you are a person who likes to express yourself, you can refer to the location of skill training at map Sanhok in PUBG in the article below.

Skill training locations on PUBG

1. BootCamp

BootCamp is the leading place in positions with fierce fighting. There are many gamers who choose this place after parachuting.

This is a small military training camp that contains lots of things to loot. It is also for this reason that many gamers choose to parachute down here with the opportunity to earn lots of precious items.

BootCamp has a lot of military buildings for players to hide, so many gamers choose to use a home-based tactic to snipe out.

2. Ruins

This temple stands at No. 2 in the list of the most fierce fighting places. This place is relatively small but also lots of stuff to loot. At this location there will be many tunnels, so you need to pay attention because the enemy can hide in the tunnel and attack suddenly.

3. Paradise Resort

The resort now no longer looks peaceful, but instead is a shooting match between many gamers. There are many players who choose to jump into this position, with an estimate of about one fifth of the number of parachute players.

Similar to the two locations, Paradise Resort is also a place to gather many things and is relatively easy to find when they are located in most of the way. You don't need to spend too much effort finding them. However, a disadvantage for many gamers if they do not know how to make use of it, is that there are relatively large buildings, many shielding objects. If you know how to hide to wait for opportunities, you will gain advantages before other players.
