Assassin's Creed Syndicate is a fascinating third-person shooter action adventure game. The context of the game takes place in London during the 19th century British industrial revolution on both sides of the city, on one side is the glamor of businessmen in decent clothes, steam engines, wagons. . on one side are small slum areas with children exploited for labor.

In the game, the player will choose to control one of the twin brothers Jacob (a hot and cool guy, with 'expertise' in close combat) and Evie Frye (with vast intelligence and knowledge. favor a more covert action game). Each character will create a separate path and plot for the player's game experience. Players will be able to participate in the centuries-old battle of the Assassins Guild against the Templars organization.

Assassin's Creed Syndicate is the first game in the Assassin's Creed series to have a female protagonist. In addition, in the game there is no multiplayer mode like the previous sections. This is also the outstanding game of the Assassin's Creed series.
