Carlos immediately killed Brad and took the electronic card on him, while Tyrell took the opportunity to unlock. The two go inside but do not see Marvin, now the doors of the headquarters are locked to prevent the Zombie from running out. Tyrell sneaked into the camera system and assumed that the STARS office would have a communication system strong enough for them to connect with Dr. Bard, so Carlos would be responsible for opening the way while Tyrell stayed looking. some.

Since the doors were locked behind, Carlos had to make a detour from the secondary corridor to the second floor. He quickly saw the two policemen caught by something and sliced through his head, which quickly revealed that a Licker was hiding on the ceiling before being shot dead by Carlos. Dr. Bard particularly emphasized that he was the only one who had the vaccine, as the Umbrella superiors had ordered the entire research team to be killed to provide clues, so Carlos needed to act as quickly as possible. Thanks to the new energy weapon system that Umbrella had just installed to increase security, Jill fired through Nemesis' chest with the Railgun, before stabbing into its mouth again to end the tough monster's life. like this leech.

At heliport Jill found Nikolai and Carlos fighting, Nikolai knocked Carlos out and smashed the Vaccine, when he revealed that his customers had changed their mind to destroy Umbrella. Carlos did not fight back with Nikolai but still risked his life and hugged him and told Jill to shoot straight, luckily the bullet only hit Nikolai's shoulder and grazed Carlos, in a defeat of Nikolai thick face wanted to cooperate again. with Jill but she didn't care and just boarded the plane and left the traitor there, waiting for the rocket to fire.
