

PUBG Mobile 0.8.0 is officially released on Play Store

PUBG Mobile's Lightspeed 0.8.0 version, PlayerUnknown's Battlegrounds Mobile game has been officially updated on the app store since September 12, 2018.

PUBG Mobile's Lightspeed 0.8.0 version, PlayerUnknown's Battlegrounds Mobile game has been officially updated on the app store since September 12, 2018.

Earlier, this version was released by Tencent in China and attracted a large number of players.

Lightspeed 0.8.0 is equipped with a completely new map called Sanhok with a slightly Southeast Asian context, a smaller, narrower area than the Erangel and Miramar but has a high rate of loot that promises to spread. New and exciting experience for players.

In addition, this version is also added by Tencent with many new features, weapons and vehicles such as Flare Gun, QBZ, Duckbill, Muscle car guns, denunciations at some positions, .

PUBG Mobile 0.8.0's installer is quite heavy, 2.1GB. Therefore, to be able to smooth battle this game, you should optimize the memory and use a better quality player if possible.

Download link:

PUBG Mobile 0.8.0

See more:

1. There are PUBG Mobile Lite for weakly configured phones
2. Driving tips when exploding tires in PUBG Mobile
3. How to change the appearance of the character PUBG Mobile
4. How to reduce jerks and lag when playing PUBG Mobile

You finished reading the article "PUBG Mobile 0.8.0 is officially released on Play Store" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.