PUBG Mobile Zombie: Synthesis of Zombie types and ways to destroy them

1. Regular zombies

This is the default zombie type in PUBG Mobile, the weakest, slowest but also the most crowded game. If you have a gun and a certain number of bullets, you don't need to worry every time you touch them. The trick to destroy this type of Zombie is that you can lure them by running around and if you have a lot of zombies then kill them.

2. Fat zombies

This "mop" zombie guy has a better stamina than a normal zombie, due to his large body always standing on the road. It seems that when he hasn't turned into a zombie, this guy is selling pork, with a knife in his hand, a fat guy can make you miserable when standing in narrow houses.

If outside, you can destroy this fat guy easily because they are not so fast. And when defeated, this "fat" zombie will explode and drop some items.

3. Spitter

The appearance of this Zombie is quite normal, you can only recognize them with the mask they are equipped with, there is also one more point that you can recognize this zombie from afar. It is the ability to "spit" poison gas of Spitter when sniffing the player.

Their poisoning will only cause you to lose a bit of blood, but if you spitter at the same time you release poison gas, you will be miserable when you "spit" the board. Not to mention that the usual boss and zombie zombies surround it, and you should move flexibly if you see Spitter's poison to avoid bullets, then shoot and shoot them to deal damage. The drawback of Spitter is that there is not so much blood, so you can take them down quickly.

4. Licker

Licker poses a danger to players with dangerous "strokes", looking at Licker's hand, you can guess that when they own a big claw that is close to the body. Licker has no skin and possesses a look that makes the player startle when he sees it

More dangerous when Licker also has the ability to crawl on the wall as well as the ceiling but often they will appear in the street more, to quickly destroy this type of zombie you can equip yourself with an S12K or use The guns have 7.62mm bullets, they can die quickly.

5. G-Virus

One of the bosses is the most haunting for Resident Evil players. 2. The G-Virus is Dr. William Birkin, who injects the G-Virus into himself and turns into a monster named G. With the ability to turn Continuously, he can make PUBG Mobile gamers quite hard to fight back.

G has the ability to move quickly, the amount of buffalo blood and if you get stuck with only a few hits of it, it is already knocked out, so there is nothing effective by running and hitting, and needing especially, you should equip powerful weapons like Minigun or Flamethrower to destroy G before G destroys you.

6. Tyrant

If you're on the road and suddenly meet a gentleman dressed in a Trilby hat and wear a military raincoat, don't get close to getting used to being punched. Tyrant can make you lie down to hug your belly after only 4 powerful punches, not to mention the Tyrant can also kick up and throw at players. With the amount of buffalo blood and Tyrant's ability to move quickly, this deserves the final boss in Zombie: Survive Till Dawn PUBG Mobile.

In order to fight Tyrant, there is no way to concentrate all the firepower on this final boss, especially with two weapons of flamethrowers and 6-barrel guns, without those two weapons you will spend quite a bit Long time to destroy Tyrant. One advice is to choose a location outside to fight this boss.

Above I have mentioned two new types of heavy weapons dedicated to the Zombie that Minigun M134 and Flamethrower flamethrowers, and some more weapons you may not know in this Zombie mode.
