How to upgrade Battle Pass COD Mobile

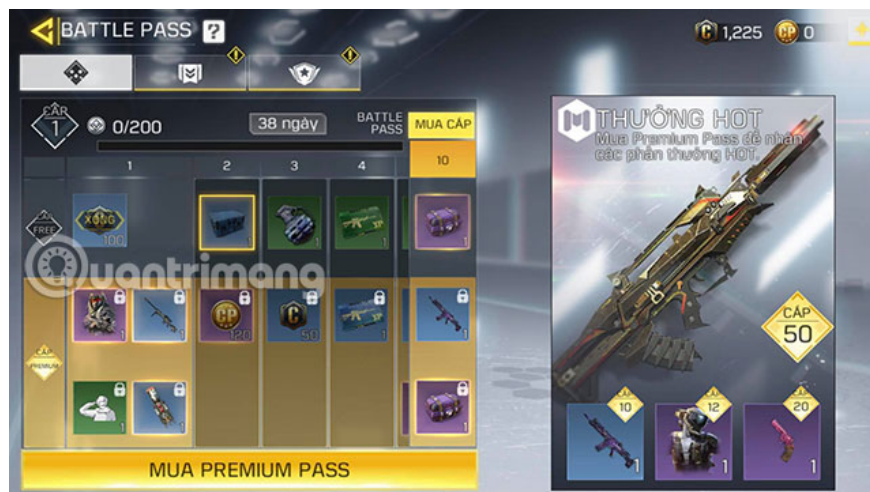

Like PUBG Mobile, COD Mobile: VN also has a Battle Pass system, including Battle Pass Free and Premium. The first season will end on Sunday, November 24, 2019, and your level will be through completing various missions in the game.

You will also receive rewards corresponding to the level of Battle Pass achieved in the game. If you buy Premium you will receive more advanced rewards in the Battle Pass, even with the rewards that you previously achieved in Battle Pass Free.

Step 1: To upgrade the Battle Pass rank , go to the Battle Pass icon in the main interface as shown below.

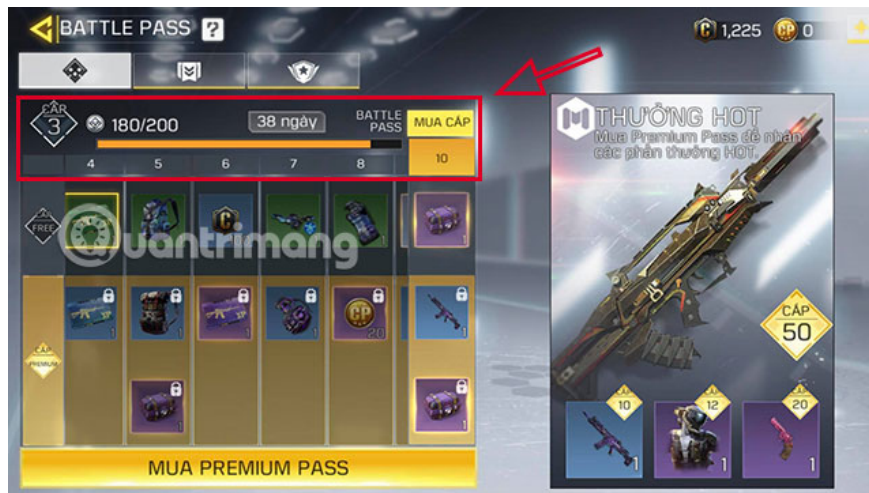

Step 2: In the Battle Pass interface, you will see the level, along with the general rewards for the current Battle Pass that you have.

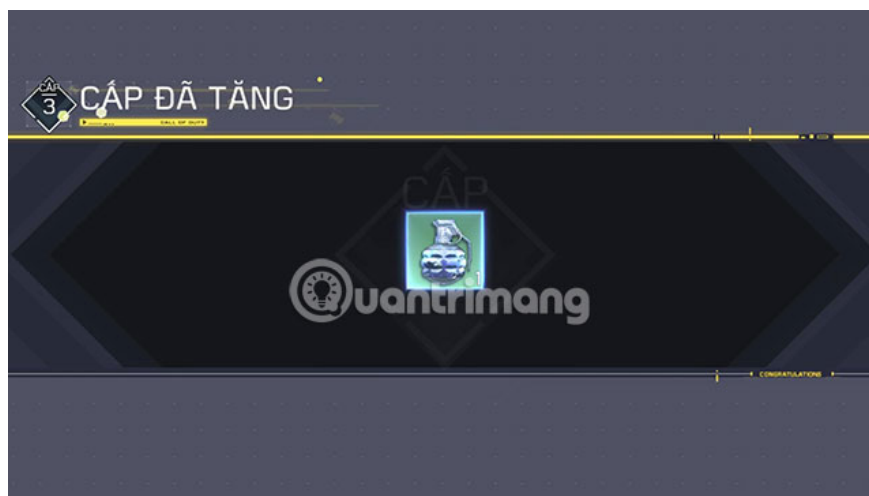

Step 3: Select the mission icon rank Battle Pass. You will see the mission milestones and status in the list, if completed the task will have the word Get as below. Along with that is experience points for the Battle Pass level.

When you gain enough experience points, here is 200, you will be promoted to the level of Battle Pass and receive your reward.

The equipment received will be a chest, items, C money, gun skin .

On larger Battle Pass missions, you will have bigger goals to accomplish. With these missions, your Battle Pass level experience points will be larger than those of normal missions.

In addition to receiving Battle Pass experience points on missions, you can also earn experience points by creating or joining a clan in Call of Duty Mobile. Click on the Clan button next to the Equip button in the main interface to create or enter the Clan.

That is some information about the rank of Call of Duty Mobile that you should know. If anyone has ever played games with Battle Pass such as PUBG Mobile or Fortnite, then maybe no stranger to the ranks in the Battle Pass.

In addition to the rewards that you can receive in the Battle Pass, you can enter the Call of Duty Mobile code and share COD Mobile VN cross-code to receive additional weapons, characters and chests.
