

Realme Band launched: Color screen, 10-day battery, heart rate monitor, VND 475,000

Despite having many attractive features, Realme Band has a retail price of less than 500,000 VND, which is a formidable competitor to Xiaomi's Mi Band 4.

Yesterday (March 5), Realme officially launched the duo Realme 6 and Realme 6 Pro in the framework of an event held in China. Also at this event, the company also introduced its first health monitoring bracelet, called the Realme Band.

The Realme Band is equipped with a 0.96 inch color screen with 80 x 160 pixel resolution, can display up to 64 letters and 65,000 different colors. In addition, it also has a touch button for users to navigate and select features, with just a few simple touches.

Through the LinkSmart application installed on the phone, Realme Band can display notifications from Facebook, Messenger, WhatsApp, Instagram, Twitter, TikTok and even SMS. The product currently has 5 different watch faces, however it is expected to be added through future updates.

Realme's new fitness bands are water and dust resistant to IP68 standards, so there's no need to worry about your body sweating after stressful training, as well as accidentally dropping them. into the water or getting caught in the rain.

Notably, Realme Band is one of the few health monitoring bracelets on the market today equipped with USB-A port below the strap. Thanks to this design, users can charge the device by plugging directly into a laptop or apdater without having to use any other accessories.

With a 90mAh battery, Realme Band can provide up to 10 days of use after a full charge, if heart rate monitoring is enabled. This smart band can track your heart rate in real time, as well as track your sleep and count your steps. It can even remind you to drink water periodically, as well as if you do not move for a long time.

Realme Band also has 9 different sports modes, including cycling, jogging, walking, hiking, climbing, yoga, bodybuilding, spinning and baseball. The collected data will be sent to the application on the smartphone, allowing you to review the statistics as needed.

Price and release time

As expected, Realme Band will be open for sale on 9/3 with a retail price of 1499 Rupees (about 475,000 VND). The product has three color options: Black, Olive Blue and Gold.
