

Replace the new 'shirt' for Gmail

Users of Google's Gmail service are quite surprised and interesting after logging into their account today, encountering a series of color themes adorning Gmail.

Users of Google's Gmail service are quite surprised and interesting after logging into their account today, encountering a series of color themes for Gmail, which are introduced in the inbox interface in turn.

This is a new feature that Google has just added to Gmail after integrating a variety of features such as Google Calendar, Google Docs . With Themes, users can choose a variety of themes with different colors to suit his personality.

Multiple choice theme for users from Gmail

To change the theme, users need to log into Gmail, select Settings and then choose the Themes tab added after the Labs tab.

You finished reading the article "Replace the new 'shirt' for Gmail" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.