

Rockstar will announce the official trailer of GTA 6 in 2022?

Since Rockstar's official announcement about the existence of GTA 6, the leaked information surrounding this game has become more popular than ever.

After nearly 9 years of waiting for the gaming community, Rockstar has finally officially confirmed that they are focusing on developing GTA 6. Although more specific information about this project has not been released yet, announced, but at least Rockstar's confirmation has also brought positive signals to fans.

Recently, a leaker named Tez2 has given surprising information that Rockstar will most likely reveal the first footage of GTA 6 before 2022 ends. In fact, it is entirely possible for a studio to release a trailer for a new game not long after announcing the project.

Therefore, GTA 6 can completely have a separate trailer shown in the near future. Even so, fans of the Grand Theft Auto series will have to wait until at least the second half of 2022 before seeing the next move from Rockstar.

As one of the biggest game franchises of all time, Grand Theft Auto has always received great attention and attention from the gaming community. However, before expecting anything, we should still wait for official announcements about GTA 6 from Take-Two or Rockstar.
