Reviews Samsung Galaxy A51: Samsung Vietnam has officially launched the Galaxy A51, the first smartphone with a macro camera.

Samsung Vietnam has officially launched the Galaxy A51, the first smartphone equipped with a macro camera.

Galaxy A51 is equipped with a 6.5 "Super AMOLED screen with FullHD + resolution. The 32Mp front camera is integrated into the screen to help bring a display ratio of 20: 9 to cinematic standards.

The cluster of 4 cameras arranged in a square on the back of the Galaxy A51 includes the main camera 48 MP f / 2.0 80-degree viewing angle, 5 MP camera for depth measurement f / 2.2, 12 MP super wide angle 123 degrees and especially the camera 5MP macro, first appeared on a Samsung smartphone.

It is also equipped with Super Steady Video, the super-stable movie recording feature, which eliminates the vibrations inherent in the Galaxy S10 series.

In terms of configuration, the device owns an 8-core processor, 6GB of RAM, 128GB ROM, a 4,000mAh battery and 15W super fast charging technology. This charging speed allows the A51 to provide 3 hours of movie watching, 3 hours of communication and 10 hours of music listening after only 10 minutes of charging.

Galaxy A51 has an integrated fingerprint sensor inside the screen and Samsung Knox platform to ensure user data protection at a high level.

Samsung Galaxy A51 has 3 color versions for users to choose including: Blue Crush multicolor, Sparkling white Crush, Black Crush diamond. The device will be distributed to the market from 11/27 with the suggested price of 7,990,000 VND.

Users who pre-order Samsung Galaxy A51 from December 16 to December 26, 2019 will receive a gift set including a backup battery, a Bluetooth headset with a total gift of up to 1,580,000 VND and offers on the app. Galaxy Gift worth up to VND 450,000.
