

See 7 classic paintings 'makeover' with a more fun-filled style

Let us look at 7 classic paintings molting with more fun style than in the article below!

1. 28 street art works are extremely creative and impressive
2. 15 incredible surreal artworks of talented artists
3. Why do Disney cartoon characters wear white gloves?

Classical painting has left us with beautiful works of art. They not only show beauty in art but also show important moments in real life at that time. However, very few people will understand and perceive these things, especially for modern young people like today.

But what if these masterpieces are " adapted " for modernity? A Tumblr digital artist called Lothlenan is changing by turning some timeless artwork into " geeky " imaginary settings. So far, they have adapted 7 activities (tableaux), inspired by fans like Sailor Moon - Sailor Moon , Adventure Time and The Legend of Zelda - Legend of Hyrule . It's amazing how the paintings of the century bring a modern style when combined with Anime animation elements!

We will provide the name and author of the 7 classic paintings below, try to guess what painting will be " transformed " into any work!

1. "Woman With A Parasol" by artist Claude Monet

2. "The Scream (of Nature)" by artist Edvard Munch

3. "The Accolade" by artist Edmund Leighton

4. "The Swing" by artist Jean - Honore Fragonard

5. "A Portrait Of Louis XIV" by Hyacinthe Rigaud

6. "Self Portrait With Her Daughter" by Madame Le Brun

7. "Lovers On A Swing" by Pierre Auguste

See more: What do classic classic cartoon characters look like?

Having fun!

You finished reading the article "See 7 classic paintings 'makeover' with a more fun-filled style" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.