

Set Slide transition effects in PowerPoint

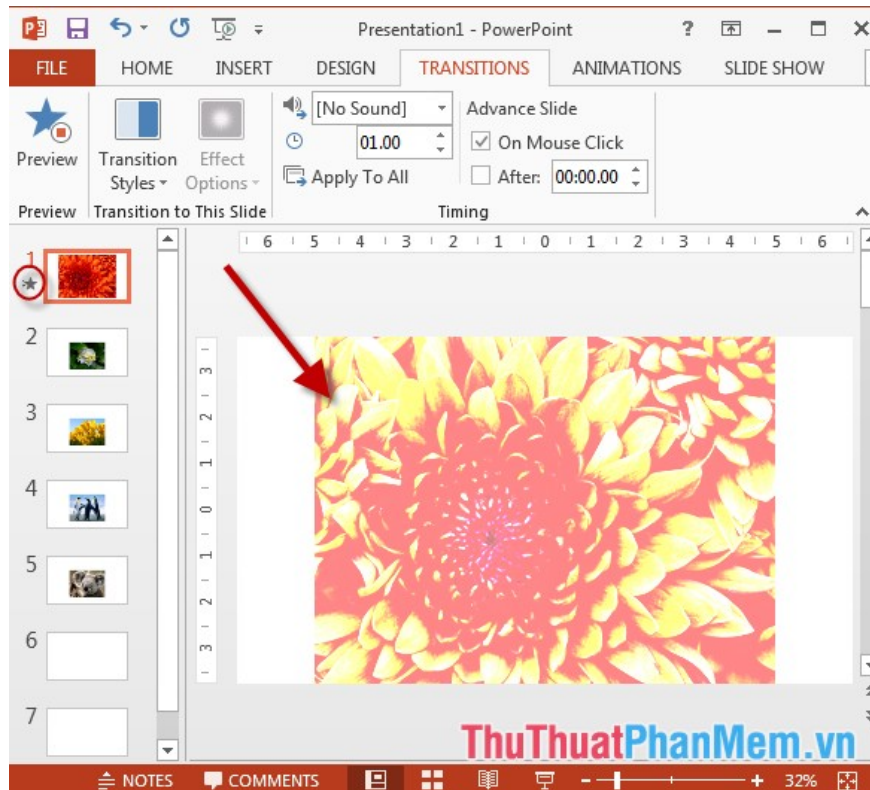

Introduce how to set up Slide transition effects in PowerPoint. Step 1: Go to Transitions tab - in Transition to this Slide section - click Transition Style - select supported effect types in the dialog box: Step 2: The effect is attached to Slide already

The following article introduces you in detail how to set the Slide transition effects in PowerPoint.

Step 1: Go to Transitions tab -> in Transition to this Slide -> click Transition Style -> select support effect types in the dialog box:

Step 2: The effect is attached to the slide selected and on Slide a star was selected instant transition effects:

- Similarly, you can choose other types of effects for Slide:

Step 3: Select the sound emitted when the Slide show . In case you want to add sound when the Slide show, click the Sound icon -> select the sound style appropriate for your Silde content :

- In case you want to insert another sound with the available sound, click Other Sound:

- The dialog box appears selecting the path to the audio file to insert -> click OK:

Step 4: Select the type of slide transition effect . If you want to perform Slide transitions by left clicking the checkmark on the item On Mouse Click:

Step 5: If you want to set the time for moving the slide, select After -> set the time to forward 1 Slide:

Step 6: Finally, after setting the Slide transition effects, click Apply to All to confirm all the options:

- Similarly you can set the transition effects Slide to Slide rest:

The above is a detailed guide on how to set the Slide transition effects in PowerPoint.

Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Set Slide transition effects in PowerPoint" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.