

Shortcut key combination for Windows laptop, Macbook

With keyboard shortcuts for Windows laptops and Macbooks, you can become an expert in using computers. They help you save time and quickly handle situations such as the machine freezing, hanging or not working well, and are more flexible during use.

Grasping the computer shortcut key combinations below will help you gain more experience in handling your PC, saving time shutting down the computer instead of having to use the mouse like before, just through basic keyboard operations. At the same time, increase the life of the computer mouse.

I. Shortcut key combination for PC and laptop Win 11/10/8/7

Most computers and laptops today are using Windows 11. Therefore, to quickly turn off the computer on this operating system, you just need to press the key combination ALT + F4 + Enter . At this point, the PC will automatically power off without needing to use complicated operations like before.

Besides the ways to turn off computers running Win 10 and Win 8, you can still use the Windows + X key combination , open the quick link menu displayed as below and press the U key twice to turn off the computer or laptop without need to use mouse.

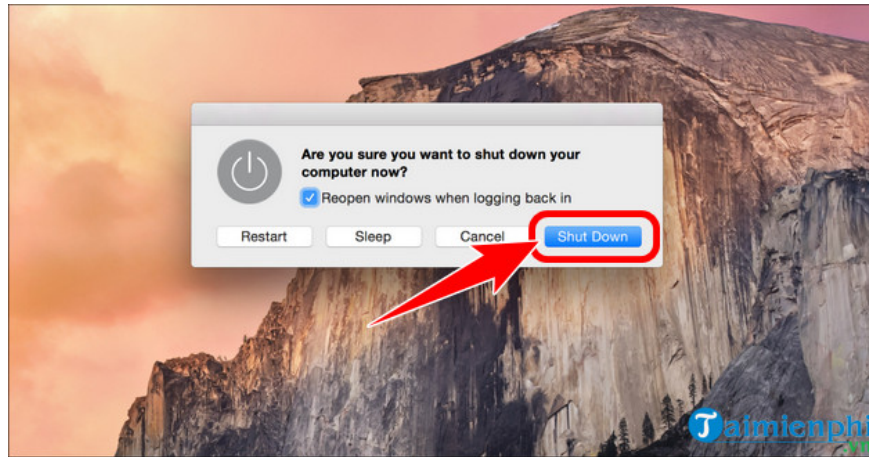

In case your computer is still using the Windows 7 operating system and wants to turn off the power quickly, you can press the Windows key combination + right arrow + Enter to turn off the computer.

II. Macbook computer shortcut key combination

To quickly turn off the Macbook computer, you need to press the key combination Control + Eject or Control + power button, at this time the computer will display a message as shown below, select Shut Down to turn off the Macbook.

III. Benefits of using computer keyboard shortcuts

Currently, there are many effective ways to turn off the computer, but you should prioritize using computer shortcut keys because it brings many benefits to users:

- Save time turning off computers and laptops instead of having to use manual operations.
- Increase computer mouse lifespan.
- Gain more experience when using computers.

With the above basic computer shortcut key combination, you can turn off your computer easily and effectively. Hopefully this information will be useful to you in urgent situations where you need to turn off your computer quickly. In addition, readers can refer to a few other important computer shortcuts, helping to handle work more conveniently instead of having to waste time using the mouse.

You finished reading the article "Shortcut key combination for Windows laptop, Macbook" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.