

Shortcut switch Sheet in Excel

Shortcut switch Sheet in Excel. Are you looking for a shortcut combination to quickly switch Sheet in Excel to make the process of working between sheets faster? Below the article shared to you the Sheet shortcut shortcut in Excel, invite you to tickle

Are you looking for a shortcut combination to quickly switch Sheet in Excel to make the process of working between sheets faster? Below the article shared to you the Sheet shortcut shortcut in Excel, please follow along.

The shortcut combination switches Sheet in Excel

1. Ctrl + Page Up moves to the sheet in front of the current sheet.
2. Ctrl + Page Down moves to the next sheet.

Note: Some computers if you can not press the above combination, you can press Ctrl + Fn + Page Down / Up.

On a Macbook , the shortcut to switch Sheet in Excel is to use the Option + arrow keys left (to right) to move back the sheet in front of the current sheet (move to the next sheet of the current sheet).

If there are multiple sheets, right-click on the lower left corner and select to Sheet to move to.

You can refer to the common keyboard shortcuts in Excel here <http://TipsMake.vn/cac-phim-tat-trong-excel/>

So you know the shortcut to switch Sheet in Excel, hope it will help you. Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Shortcut switch Sheet in Excel" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.