

Shortcuts when using a web browser

Just like in Word, Excel and Powerpoint, when you use web browsers, there are extremely useful shortcuts that help you manipulate a few times faster without using a mouse, all of which are used. completely on the keyboard.

Which are the shortcuts? Let's find out through the following article

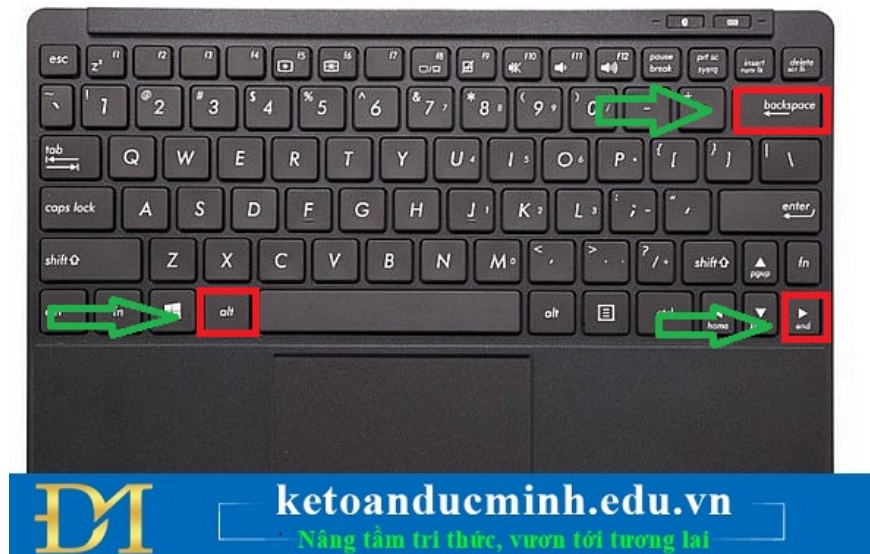

1. Working tabs

- Ctrl + 1 - 8: Quickly switch tabs in order of 1 to 8 (from left to right)
- Ctrl + 9: Quickly switch to the last tab.
- Ctrl + Tab: Quickly move to the next tab (the tab to the right of the current tab).
- Ctrl + Shift + Tab: Quickly switch to the previous tab (the tab to the left of the current tab).
- Ctrl + W, Ctrl + F4: Close the current tab.
- Ctrl + Shift + T: Open the recently closed tab.
- Ctrl + T: Open a new tab.
- Ctrl + N: Open a new browser window.
- Alt + F4: Close the current browser window.

Middle mouse button when clicking on a tab: Close tab.

- Ctrl + Left mouse button, middle mouse button: Open the link in a new tab.
- Shift + Left mouse button: Open the link in a new browser window.

2. Control function

Alt + Left arrow, Backspace: Return to the previous web

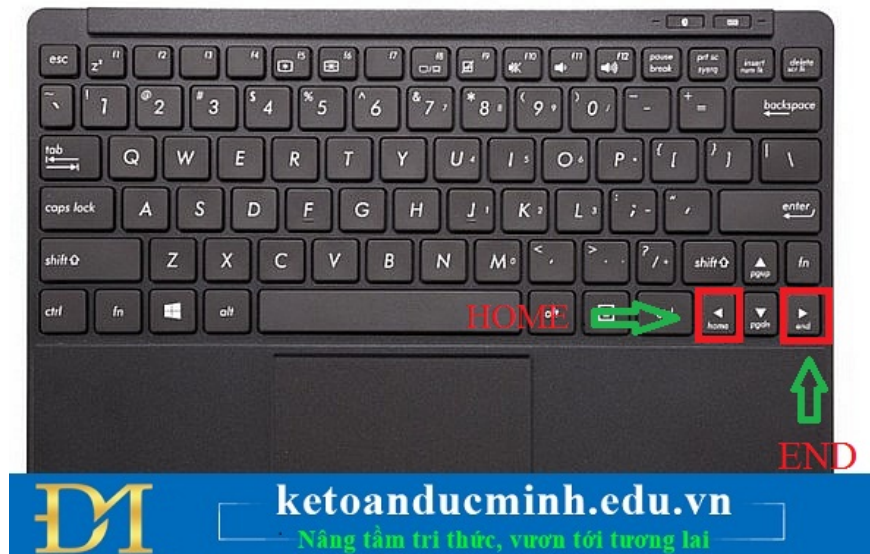

- Alt + Left arrow.Backspace: Return to the previous web.
- Alt + Right arrow.Shift + Backspace: go to the previous website.
- F5: Reload the page.
- Ctrl + F5: Reload the entire page, bypassing the cache.
- Escape (ESC): Stop loading the current web page.
- Alt + Home: Open the homepage.

3. Zoom function

- Ctrl and +, Ctrl + scroll bar middle mouse button up: Zoom in.
- Ctrl and -, Ctrl + scroll bar middle mouse button down: Zoom out.
- Ctrl + 0: Return to the original default zoom mode.
- F11: Full screen mode.

4. Drag the web page

- Space, Page Down: Drag down a screen frame.
- Shift + Space, Page Up: Drag up a screen frame.

Home: Back to top.– End: Go to the bottom of the page

- Home: Back to the top.

- End: Go to the bottom of the page.

- Click the middle mouse and move the mouse: Drag the website up and down, left and right depending on the mouse movement direction.

4. The address bar

- Ctrl + L, Alt + D, F6: Return the cursor to the address bar, you can start typing the new address.

- Ctrl + Enter: Automatically prefix www. and .com suffix to the address entered.

For example, you can just type Google and press Ctrl + Enter, without typing Google.com

- Alt + Enter: Open the website address you just entered in a new tab.

5. Search function

Ctrl + K, Ctrl + E: Move the cursor to the browser search box (can be Google, Yahoo, Bing or other applications), if the browser does not have a search box, the cursor will be returned to the bar. address.

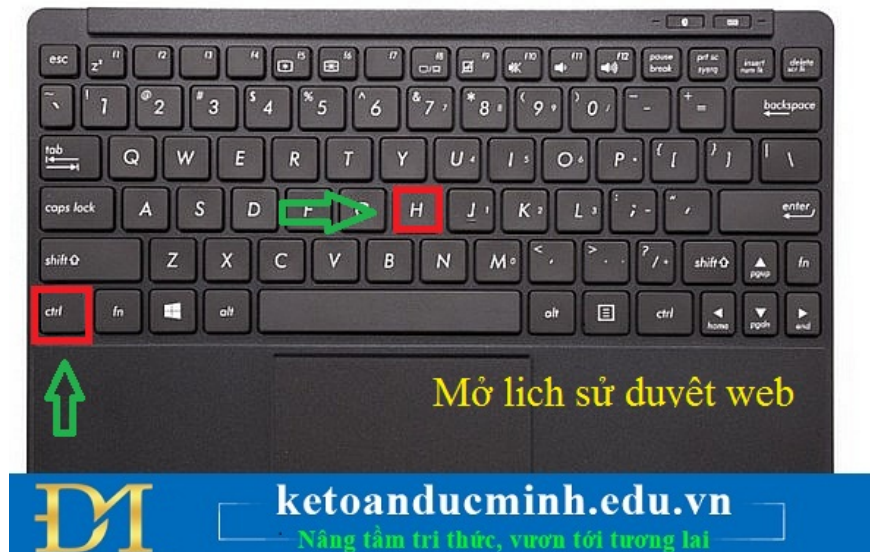

- Alt + Enter: Display search results in the browser search box in a new tab.

- Ctrl + F, F3: Open the search box in the current web page (text search).

- Ctrl + G, F3: Go to the next search result from the search step above.

- Ctrl + Shift + G, Shift + F3: Return to the previous search result from the above search step.

6. Display Bookmarks history and bookmarks

Ctrl + H: Open browsing history

- Ctrl + H: Open browsing history
- Ctrl + J: Open the download history.
- Ctrl + D: Quickly bookmark the current web page.
- Ctrl + Shift + Del: Open the Clear Browsing History window.

7. Some other functions

- Ctrl + P: Print the current page.
- Ctrl + S: Save the current page to your computer.
- Ctrl + O: Open a file from your computer.

You finished reading the article "Shortcuts when using a web browser" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.