The sniper position and ambush in PUBG Mobile

1. Watchtower

The watchtower in the game can appear in many locations, multiple maps, diverse number of floors in each tower. The watchtower buildings will often be distributed in locations near residential areas. The area of ??each watchtower is also different. Each watchtower will be suitable for different types of hiding.

With the types of empty watchtowers without roofs, no shielding, players need to lie close to the new surface to reduce the rate of enemies being shot from below. So you need to cover and hide yourself carefully if you decide to snipe from the watchtower down.

2. Roof

Many gamers will choose the roof to 'hunt' bait and wait for the enemy. The Pochinki or Schools areas in the Erangel map all have a large terrace for sniping. Before lying down or sitting down watching from the rooftop, you need to pay attention to the surrounding enemies, especially from the hill next to you because you will probably be destroyed from there.

3. Window

If an inexperienced enemy enters the house, often moves, doesn't lie or doesn't sit down, we can follow them through the window. With a third perspective, you can completely see the movement of the enemy in the house, especially with the upper floor window.

If you decide to move closer to a property, check to see if there is anything moving on the floor or window below the house.

4. Location near the hearing box

The hearing box is always a successful trap to take down the prey. If the hearing falls near your position, wait and the 'prey' will come soon after. Immediately flash the chance to destroy the enemy. If you accidentally encounter a hearing box on your way, you should also find a hiding position to check if there are any prey.

In addition to the Sanhok map with the appearance of the Flare Gun to call the hearing chamber, the player should pay attention to the 3-umbrella mark, there will surely be someone preparing to take the hearing box. Of course, in order to succeed in hunting each of these types, it is necessary to hide them thoroughly.
