

Speed ??up, shutdown in Windows 7

The following article will guide you some tips to help speed up shutdown, turn on Windows 7.

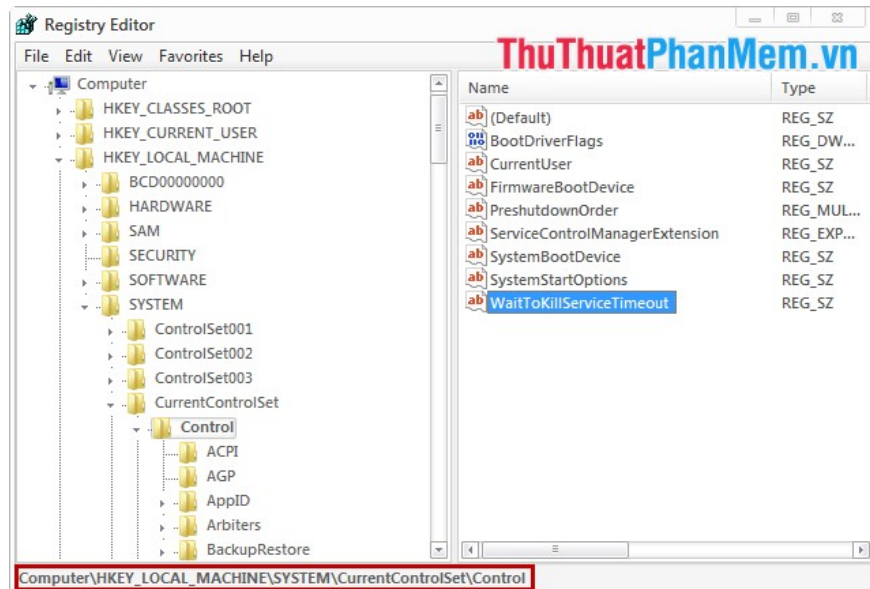

Even though higher versions of Windows appear, but Windows 7 is still the operating system used by many people. Computer use for a long time, install a lot of software to make the start-up and shutdown process more and more slower.

The following article will guide you some tips to help speed up shutdown, turn on Windows 7.

Step 1: Press the Windows + R combination to open the Run dialog box , then enter the keyword regedit and click OK to open the Registry Editor dialog box .

Step 2: On the Registry Editor interface , navigate to the WaitToKillService section : HKEY_LOCAL_MACHINESYSTEMCurrentControlSetControl .

Next, double click on WaitToKillServiceTimeout , the Edit String dialog box appears . You change the value 5000 to 2000 in the Value data and click OK .

Step 3: Continue to go to HungAppTimeout by the path: HKEY_CURRENT_USER\Control Panel\Desktop .

Double click on the HungAppTimeout section and change the value in Value data to 2000 and click OK .

Step 4: Turn off the open applications without displaying notifications.

You find the following link to AutoEndTasks : HKEY_CURRENT_USER\Control Panel\Desktop .

Then you double click on AutoEndTasks and change the value in the Value data section to 1 and click OK to save.

Thus, the article above has instructed you on some tricks to help speed up shutdown, turn on the machine in Windows 7. You can follow the instruction article, shutdown speed, turn on your computer You will be greatly improved. Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Speed ??up, shutdown in Windows 7" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.