

Summary of the hottest technology news for the week of October 4

10 things you need to know about Samsung Galaxy Note 4, 3 easy ways to create collaborative photo albums, 10 features on Windows 10 most required by users, news about Android 5.0 Lollipop, SSL 3.0, iPad Air 2, 8 iPhone 6 Plus errors and how to fix, ... are the hottest news last week!

10 things you need to know about Samsung Galaxy Note 4, 3 easy ways to create collaborative photo albums, 10 features on Windows 10 most required by users, news about Android 5.0 Lollipop, SSL 3.0, iPad Air 2, 8 iPhone 6 Plus errors and how to fix, . are the hottest news last week!

1- 10 things to know about Samsung Galaxy Note 4

With the official launch of Samsung Galaxy Note 4 in Vietnam on October 16, the flagship market in the second half of 2014 is more exciting. Let's take a look at 10 outstanding features of one of the few best and most complete smartphones available today.See details!

2- 3 easy ways to create collaborative photo albums

People often take photos in special events such as holidays, weddings, halls, etc. but after the event, collecting photos from friends and family seems a bit . tired. Here are 3 easy ways to collect and share photos with all participants after the meeting.See details!

3- It is possible to download iOS 8.1 for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch for free

Apple has released the 8.1 version of iOS to customers using iPhone, iPad and iPod touch, with Apple Pay and many other features.

As promised, the new mobile operating system was announced last week by Apple in the launch of the iPad Air 2, iPad mini 3 and iMac with 5K Retina display, allowing customers to download it free of charge.

However, because in the early days, Apple's server may not be able to keep up with the large amount of downloads from customers, which will slow down the update speed.See details!

4- 10 features on Windows 10 are most users require

Microsoft is very active in collecting user comments about Windows 10 as part of its Technical Preview program. The company has previously released tests for users to try before Windows, but has never been as aggressive as this one.

Below are the 10 most requested changes on the Uservice web site, where users are "voiced" to suggest to Microsoft about something related to its products, and in this case, Windows. 10. See details!

5- New points on the Android 4.4 update of Zenfone 5

Zenfone 5 users in Vietnam have started to receive the latest Android 4.4 updates with a lot of innovations, the most important of course is to upgrade the system platform to Kitkat, only this detail is very good. Many brothers like it.

If you have not updated, remember the section About and Check Update try to see, after updating, you can immediately see that ZenUI interface has changed, from icons to colors are different and have a nice part than. Here are some other changes.See details!

6- Many online transactions in Vietnam have a SSL 3.0 vulnerability

Security firm Bkav on October 21 announced that in the recent past, about two-thirds of online transaction services in Vietnam have suffered an SSL 3.0 vulnerability.

This is a vulnerability announced by Google on October 14, which could allow hackers to take up e-banking accounts, securities accounts and e-commerce users.

7- iOS 8.1 operating system has been unlocked after a short time of launch

After only a short time being released to the market by Apple, iOS 8.1 has been unlocked (Jailbreak) through a tool programmed by the group called Pangu.

However, this version has no built-in Cydia tool. It is expected that soon, the complete version including Cydia will be released. See details!

8- iPad Air 2 3G versions from VND 15.5 million are available in Vietnam today

The iPad Air 2 has an estimated price of just over VND 12 million for Wi-Fi and about VND 15.5 million for a 3G-connected version, not much higher than the original price.

Pad Air 2 will start selling later this week, one week after its official launch on October 16. Also a very anticipated product of Apple at the end of the year like iPhone 6 and iPhone 6 Plus, but the expected price of the machine when returning to Vietnam in the form of portable will not be much higher than the original price. See details!

9- Google confirmed the release of Android 5.0 Lollipop in early November 2014

Google has just confirmed it will release Android 5.0 Lollipop on November 3 in a report for developers.

The notice notes developers that Android 5.0 SDK is available to download, test and develop Lollipop apps on Google Play. See details!

10-8 errors of iPhone 6 Plus and how to fix

Along with the launch of iPhone 6 Plus with iOS 8.0 version, Apple has also released new updates to iOS 8.0.2 and most recently iOS 8.1 brings improvements and fixes certain errors. However, many users still experience unpleasant problems from iPhone 6 Plus and below are ways to fix it. See details!

You finished reading the article "Summary of the hottest technology news for the week of October 4" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
