

Surf 3G VinaPhone using HP computer

HP Vietnam has just launched a new generation of personal computers with the latest Windows operating system - Microsoft Windows 7.

HP Vietnam has just launched a new generation of personal computers with the latest Windows operating system - Microsoft Windows 7 . In particular, there are many computers integrated with 3G technology to help customers experience the mobile broadband 'net' surfing of Vinaphone.

The products launched this time include high-class, stylish and super-fashionable computers HP ENVY13 and ENVY15; ultra-light and thin computers: HP Pavilion dm1, dm3 and HP ProBook 5310m; and the HP Mini 110, 310, 5101 series. The HP Mini special edition is elaborately designed by the Dutch, French and fashion designers, the Tord Boontje with every touch, delicate stylization of the space. 3D etched engraved printing.

A newly introduced HP Mini computer with the function of surfing the net from 3G VinaPhone.

For HP Elite Book, HP ProBook, HP Compaq, HP Pavilion, Compaq Presario, Compaq . HP is also ready to upgrade MS Windows 7 version for customers who are using copyright by participating in the chapter Windows 7 Upgrade Option program on the website: www.hp.com/go/Windows7upgrade (the program applies only to Windows Vista Home Premium, Windows Vista Business and Windows Vista Ultimate editions and machines purchased from day to day) June 26, 2009 to January 31, 2010).

Particularly for HP Mini laptops (110, 5101 and ProBook 4310s, 4510s and 5310m with integrated 3G technology on display at this launch of MS Windows 7, customers will also experience mobile 'net' surfing. Vinaphone's broadband.

The series of computers launched this time integrated Windows 7 operating system capable of starting, stopping and restarting in just a few seconds, supporting users to work more efficiently and quickly. In addition, super-fast charging time and speed of access, search, combined with Windows 7 XP Mode ensure extended use of traditional software applications.

An HP Compaq & HP Pavilion desktop computer comes with a built-in Windows 7 operating system and uses the Intel Core 2 Duo processor that can operate up to 3 times faster while saving up to 55% of power consumption. compared to 'old' desktop computers. And HP laptops with this integrated operating system can operate 68% more efficiently than products with the same functionality run on Windows XP operating systems with a 41% faster boot time and more. 30% faster shutdown time.

You finished reading the article "Surf 3G VinaPhone using HP computer" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.