

Tell the iPhone 4 to be iPhone X, Americans still believe it and say it is the future of the phone

'Revolutionary', 'different', 'modern' is what the American people in 2017 describe about iPhone ... 4.

'Revolutionary', 'different', 'modern' is what the American people in 2017 describe about iPhone . 4.

In the latest installment of Jimmy Kimmel Live on Tuesday night, Jimmy set off with Apple's latest iPhone, iPhone X, in hand and asked passersby how they felt. Only thing, instead of offering iPhone X, he launched the product of 7 years ago - iPhone 4.

But when holding in the hands of iPhone 4, almost no one recognized and complimented this latest 'iPhone' compact, convenient. There are even people who compliment all the words with polished words like 'different' or 'revolutionary'.

Jimmy said 'people will buy all the latest iPhones because they think it will be better' but because of that doubt he made this interesting interview.

So Apple, maybe it's okay to just go back to the iPhone 4.
