

Tell you how to turn off security warnings in Excel in the simplest and most detailed way

Protected View is an extremely useful feature in Microsoft software, but not everyone knows how to use it. This article will guide you to turn off security warnings in Excel quickly and simply.

At the Excel interface you will receive a full Privacy Warning notice on Excel with the content Privacy Warning: This document contains macros, ActiveX controls, XML, Expansion pack information, or Web component.... as shown below.

When this message appears continuously, it does not affect the data in Excel but will annoy the user. To turn off this notification, follow the simple steps below:

Table of contents

How to turn off security warning in Excel

How to turn off security warning in Excel

Step 1: Select File > Options

At the Excel interface, click on the File tab on the toolbar. Next, click on Options to make the settings.

Step 2: Select Trust Center > Trust Center Settings...

The Excel Options window will appear on the screen. At this interface, click on Trust Center below. Next, look to the right and select Trust Center Settings. as shown below:

Step 3: Select Privacy Options > uncheck Remove personal information from file properties on save

The Trust Center window will then appear on the screen. Next, users click on Privacy Options below. Look to the right and uncheck the Remove personal information from file properties on save section. Then click OK to complete as shown below:

Then you have completed the steps to simply turn off the Privacy Warning notification. Next you can continue working in Excel as usual.

In the above article, we told you how to turn off security warnings in Excel. With just 3 simple steps above, you can easily turn off notifications to work more effectively. Hopefully the above article will bring useful information to readers. Hope you are successful.

You finished reading the article "Tell you how to turn off security warnings in Excel in the simplest and most detailed way" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.