2. New Year greetings messages love words

1. Who clings to the spring

Who clings the spring down
Let my hair float
The heart is still full of desire
Love appears spring rain

Love is like fifteen
Austria hugs a small waist
Pure silk shoulder
I dare to touch

Love is far away
When my eyes are closed
Fluffy pink lips
Kiss like the first day

Ta broke into each other
Where is the time?
Heaven and earth stopped breathing
Only me together

And . morning dew filled
And . the grass is full of flowers
We reach out and drink quickly
Fragrant dew drops early in the day.

2. You give me spring

Each night a pack of medicine
Absorb a lot of cracked lips
Sadness cannot speak
Sadness ate on me

Winter sky mountain forest
Extremely winter life!
Wheels roll dust
Any bird rhythm has stopped

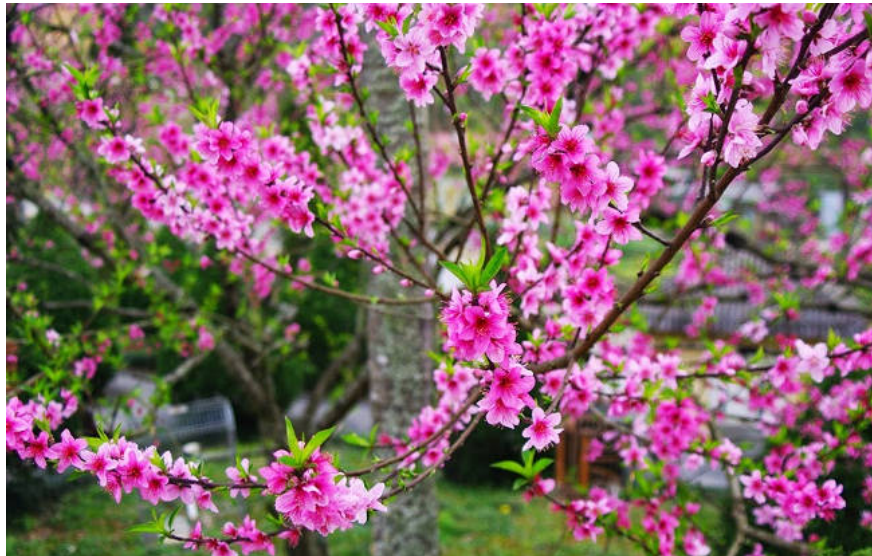

"You give me the spring"
Too sad voice!
The first girl bowed:
"You give me the spring"

The blue hair was silver
The pink lips are fading
I give you wind
I give you a long rain!

Winter sky mountain forest
Extremely winter life!
Smoking in the dark
Do smoke fly up?

3. Warm cold spring

Who drops gold flying in the wind?
For sunlit roads this afternoon
Warm hands spring just arrived
The passion is not drunk yet
Loving hard yellow apricot wings
I never miss an appointment .

4. Spring song

I write a spring poem
Thousands of nine hundred and sixty-one
Branch of apple in the beginning of summer is shaking Sunny dew drops glitter .
Much cold and warm sunshine

Is it really bitter and sweet?

Farewell to the old year

Heard the new spring of incredible lightheadedness!

Good spring! What's fun?

Dear baby? Her cheeks are red

Like the first date, passionate

I hold my hand, lively and clumsy

That said: "That is my heart

Very honestly divided the three fresh red parts:

He is dedicated to the Party a lot

The part for poetry, and the part for love . "

I'm ashamed: "That's a lot of you too!"

Then they kissed, two comrades

D get together, until tomorrow morning

I picked you up, spring also came in my hands!

Oh, the song of the bird chirping

In spring, the rice fields were springing and I flew

Spring, spring, happy to the big butt

Funny sea gave white waves of rapids

Poetry sang, cool in wishes:

Way to happiness is immense

Tam Dao and Ba Vi are happy with spring and green mountains .

Hi 61! High peaks

I stand here, looking at the four directions

Looking back thousands of years, looking forward to tomorrow

Looking North, looking all over the globe!

after a tumultuous

The poem is still in pain of love

Floating life

T? Nh? ?i, ratio flows around Ki?u's body!

Listen to Nguyen Trai adventure's soul

The sound of the sword, the voice of the heart .

Oh the sound of his old father

Please sing young water today:

A region of heaven and earth in hand

Although not yet integrity, also fly the pink flag!

Vietnam, a heroic nation

The bare hands that have succeeded should be people!

What is more wonderful than that on Earth

People who love life to love each other

The Party gives us a rich heart

Straight back and walk, raise your head and fly!

Happy life, open the door today

Like my department store

Dear lovers, please buy flowers

And go there, buy some wedding gifts:

Nam Dinh silk is beautiful and fresh

Hang Dao comb brushed green hair!

I am still poor, my house is crowded

But there are enough hanging paintings for Tet .

That happy life, the sound of Solidarity

I hold hands and rebuild my life

Rice fields, sweet potato fields, cassava fields and coffee gardens

Pig sty, chicken flock, vegetable herd, fish pond

Clear the droppings, pick up every leaf

Each coal, cassava, and corn

I cherish and gather up my fortune!

Oh true, poem in the North

Very free to be fresh and playful

The whole space is close

Time also forgot the week of forgetting months.

Young life again. All revolutionary!

Clean and lonely, lonely, and dirty

Our homeland is busy with the common fun

The collaborator should add that thick rice.

Breast enlargement. Small rows of willow

Got green like a fifteen-year-old hair

Spring, Spring, I was only in the middle of the year

But life was jubilantly celebrating

Like today, in the middle of the construction site

Transport convoys are connected

Hong Quang, Lao Cai, Thai Nguyen, Viet Tri

The name of the country cheered and called .

Come on! Uncle Ho said
New Year's Eve, singing night spring
Five-year plan. Invite troops
Invite feet, move forward.
All under the flag, sing up and step!
Let's go! Exploiting wild forest
Ask high mountains, where is the iron?
Ask the far sea, where does the fish flow run?
Da River, Lo River, Red River and Chay River
Ask where to jump, for electricity to turn?
Dear boys and girls
On cloudy passes and rocky mountains
Let's do both hands!
Spring is here. Hustle the future
Smoke of new factories early .

Whose poem do I write for 61?
The night was already late, cold in frostbite
Hanoi murmured . The horn blew out of the station
A train that transports bread away
The sound of hissing, running along Nam Bo road .
Oh, not the ship! That is my heart
A pounding sound, wanting to break in half!
I know you are strong, my heart
Don't cry. But why is it hot?
Like fire burning in our hearts windy?

These days, like a homesick child
I wander all the time, burning, coming in Listen to the sound and hear gunfire
Southern up, cheering up!
My three children have slept for a long time
How much has not been sleeping in the crib
Northern paradise of my children!
Morning roostercrows. Poetry, bring wings of fire
Fly away! The bird cried at the door
One more spring day. Dawn
Branch of apple in the top of summer is sweet
As simple happiness, small dreams
Hanging in front of the human race:
Peace
Warm up
For Human
Happy
Free!

5. Song about the city spring

Maybe in my voice

There is a lot of attachment

But with that song

I was very rustic

Honestly

I sing the first steps

Spring's on the city

I was away two thousand kilometers away

Can't imagine Saigon soon

Only the song came to me first

Tone the steps of pregnancy

Black notes without jewelry

I am singing black notes - really honest

Let me recognize Saigon that morning

The sky is very high

Sweet rain clean leaves of me

Busy steps and serenity
Hundreds of innocent houses expand
The same pain will come to joy
Exhilarating joy is tears flowing .
The song goes along with me saying that Black notes on music
Black notes without jewelry
Black notes used to be in the forest and cloaked
Till now, I was fifteen years old
I understand your voice still has a lot of attachment
But with that song
Please be as rustic as you can, be honest
No matter who is digging, whoever changes erratically
Please sing the steps of stamina and dynamism
Spring's overflowing on the ends of the umbrella
I sing so that my heart lusts
Let me get lost in the rush of people
Let me share with Saigon
The chest is stretched out in April
Let Saigon in me intact
The old melody in the verse now
Charming black notes that are true
Sing this spring to my hometown.

6. Baby calls spring

Spring has swallows
Spring with flying clouds
Spring flowers bloom
Spring is fun all day!

Baby is now small
Haven't seen swallows yet
Spring, baby call
Don't make him wait long!

7. On my side, I'm spring

Do you hear from heaven and earth?
Whisper
Pour every drop in, happy
Love is rising from grass
The passionate passion of the wind
Listen to me
What I want to open
It's a little bit, but it is very earnest, you!

I will not find in the sad autumn memories
A little rain through the afternoon .
I know: just add a sunny shade
The leaves are not yellow because the green is very close
I am together
Love season
infatuated.
free .

Please listen to the words
Soothing
Thousands of shimmering particles
The heart trembles and keeps the words fresh
The tilting of the night is very light
Listen to me
Spring just came
Smiles at the branch and I always stay with you!

8. Outside the spring

Suppose there is a homeland
Suppose there is a paradise
Then in heaven there is god
And there is love in the homeland.

Suppose life has spring
Suppose the spring only blooms once
It is very new to not have makeup yet
One look at each other is familiar enough.

If you assume that you were born
Stagnant dry just alone
And I will never be there
Then he is still a clay.

But you are here and I am there
God waved his hand and stood up

I looked silly like a beggar
Love is like silver.

So homeland
bewildered
He stood in the world and still wandered
So heaven
extremely isolated
He lived in life very confused

Because I can't see you rush to call
He suddenly found himself in a fluster
Be absorbed in search
I forgot to reply
He waited outside the spring.

9. Spring emotions

This spring is so beautiful
He felt his heart flutter
Is spring springing on leaf buds?
Or warm your heart because of me

He was immersed in pure fresh colors
Of spring, my heart is burning

Please smile
Do not leave the eye
Ripple of sadness obscures the moon

10. For the brilliant spring

East wind is like a blade
Cold blade
Where did the knife go?
It's cold to know

Tree foliage spread
Wind and cover your body
Tomorrow is so clever!
In bare body bare

This branch is high and low
This is a big branch
Every day and night cuddling
Green buds dating

Then a beautiful day!
Golden buds bloom
Beautiful for life
For the brilliant spring.

11. For the brilliant spring

East wind is like a blade
Cold blade
Where did the knife go?
It's cold to know

Tree foliage spread
Wind and cover your body
Tomorrow is so clever!
In bare body bare

This branch is high and low
