

The application automatically finds song chords and YouTube videos

This is a great website for guitar enthusiasts. Just have a YouTube video, it will automatically find the chord of any song you like. Let's find out!

This is a great app for guitar enthusiasts, providing useful tools for chord search. Just need a YouTube video, it will automatically find the chord of any song you want.

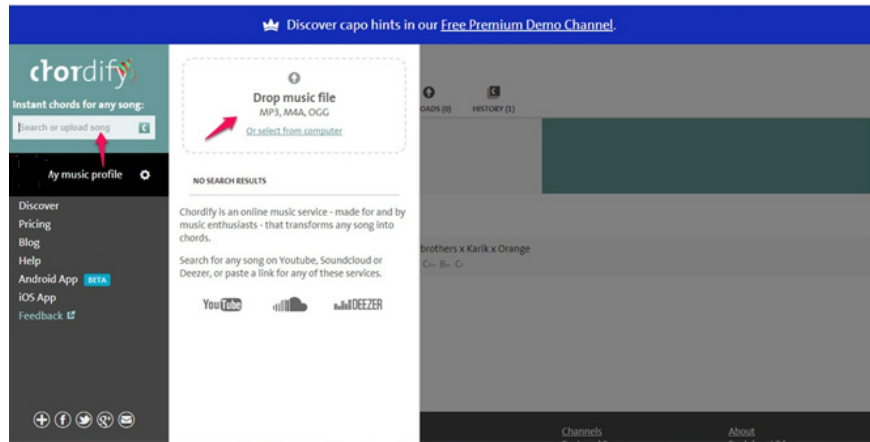

Just have a computer or smartphone that installs this application, you can have chords of any song. Let's find out!

Step 1 : Visit the chordify.net website. Then proceed to login, you can create a new account or use your Facebook account to login.

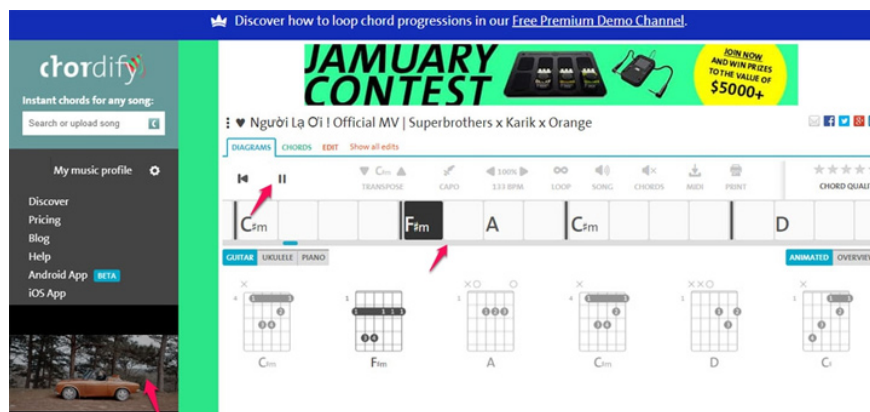

After confirming your Facebook account, please F5 to reload the website.

Step 2 : Copy the YouTube link of the song you want to find chord or upload the MP3 file of the song to the Search or upload some box as shown below:

Step 3 : For example, you want to find the chord of the song Ng??i L?n ?i- Karik. After paste the YouTube link, we will get a series of song chords. You can play youtube videos and watch chords.

This useful tool already has a version for Android and iOS, you can download and install according to the link below.

1. Android: Chordify for Android on Google Play
2. iOS: Chordify for any song on the App Store

See more:

1. Top 5 great Karaoke applications for Andoird
2. How to add background music to Instagram videos

You finished reading the article "The application automatically finds song chords and YouTube videos" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.