Movies and TV shows

1. Roku Channel

Roku Channel is an official release from Roku, allowing you to watch movies for free.

The Roku Channel offers hundreds of Hollywood movies in various genres thanks to content from several major studios, including Lionsgate, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Sony Pictures and Warner Bros.

You do not need an account to view the content, but are warned that you will have to look through some ads.

3. Pluto TV

Pluto TV is a completely legal way to watch live TV.

The company has partnerships with NBC News, MSNBC, Sky News and Bloomberg to bring you 24/7 content related to the issues currently taking place around the world. This channel also offers a lot of small channels, including Crime Network, Funny AF, IGN, Pro Wrestling and All-Day Anime.

You can also enjoy a small library of 1,000 on-demand television shows.

4. PBS

PBS channels provide everything you expect, with thousands of TV shows on demand.

You will find classics like Masterpiece, Frontline and NOVA, as well as unique documentaries and even some original web content here.

Download PBS.

5. Sony Crackle

Crackle offers free TV shows, some old movies and even original content. Programs that users can enjoy will not be the same between countries.

Because Crackle works on multiple platforms (including Android, iOS, Apple TV, PlayStation and Xbox), your list of suggestions and viewing history will sync regardless of which device you use.

6. CW

CW channel is the official Roku application from the US name network network. It is completely free to use, so there is no need to register cable service.

CW provides the last 5 episodes of an on-demand series. The program is usually available 24 hours after broadcasting on TV.

Download CW.

7. Popcornflix

Popcornflix is ??completely unrelated to the illegal Popcorn Time P2P application. This service is completely 'clean'.

This app has large movies and TV shows. Movies are organized by popular genres, although you will occasionally see special categories for holidays and other events.

News

8. CBS News

If you want to stop using cable television but still need to follow the news, the official CBS application will be a wise choice. This app provides 24/7 live streaming of its news channel, along with required sections such as the CBS Evening News, 60 Minutes, 48 Hours, Sunday Morning and Face the Nation.

Download CBS News.

9. Reuters TV

The Reuters app does not offer live streaming 24/7, but it does offer live feeds when important hot news is available.

This application aims to provide you with a customized news experience, giving a summary of snippets (short news clips) based on your interests. Snippets can talk about anything, usually 5 to 30 minutes long.

Channels for children

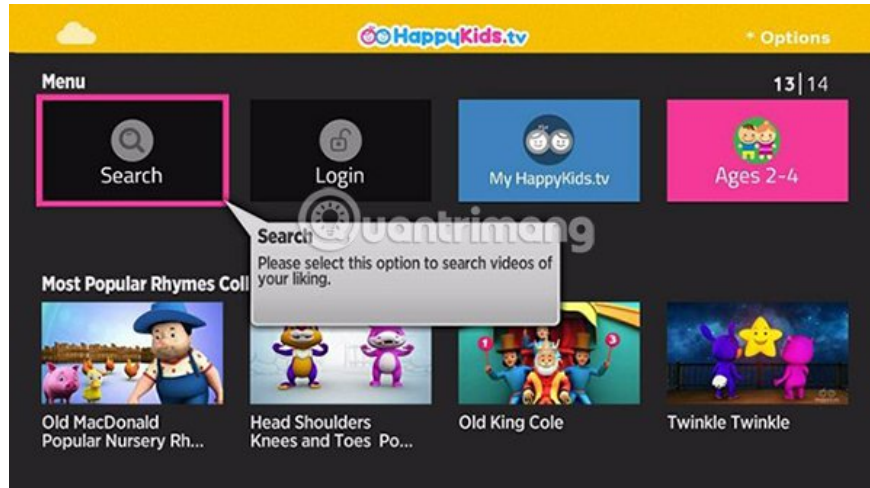

11. PBS Kids

The number of programs on PBS Kids is not much, but enough to entertain children for hours.

You can find classics like Sesame Street and Curious George, as well as modern releases like Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood, Dinosaur Train, Super Why and Wild Kratts.

Download PBS Kids.

12. HappyKids.tv

HappyKids.tv is an educational channel aimed primarily at toddlers and babies. This channel offers songs, stories, tutorials and games. Content includes topics such as alphabet, counting, color and animal sounds.

If everything is out of view, check out the 'sister' channel of HappyKids.tv, HappyKids.tv 2.

14. Pandora

Pandora is another popular audio application. The free version has some limited features, but still provides the core premise of knowing music preferences over time and playing your favorite music. This is the perfect choice for background music at an event.

You can sign up for Pandora Plus for $ 4.99 (115,000 VND) per month.

Download Pandora.

15. Spotify Music

There is no need to introduce much about Spotify. This is the most popular music player application in the world with over 35 million songs available, great music discovery tools and 200 million users. This means that Spotify is proud to offer endless playlists for you to enjoy.

17. Firefox

If you want to stop using cable TV, you probably know about Google Chromecast. It allows you to stream almost any video content from the Chrome web browser (on the desktop or mobile device) directly to the TV.

Firefox provides similar functionality. Just install Firefox on your smartphone and this application will allow you to stream videos to your Roku device. Here is a way to get Google into your Roku.

Download Firefox.

18. Web Browser X

Web Browser X is the only web browser on the Roku platform. However, Web Browser X is not perfect. Web Browser X's interface does not create excitement for users and is not always smooth. However, if you just want to browse the news or browse Reddit, this application is enough to meet that need.

Note : The security of the channel cannot be guaranteed, so you should not use Web Browser X for online banking or other sensitive tasks.

The article introduced you to the best free Roku channels. However, due to the fact that the Channel Store includes more than 5,000 applications, the content stated in the article is only a very small part. Honestly, even if the article provides you with 100 channels, that number is still not towering compared to the huge amount of content that Roku users can reach.

But TipsMake.com hopes that the information in this article can help you.
