Betfred

Betfred has the best online betting options for all players. They were founded in 1967 and started as a single bookmaking shop located mainly across Great Britain, but now they are again one of the largest independent companies in Europe too.

With easy banking options available, you won't have any problems making transactions quickly and efficiently when using this service. Betfred is committed to providing excellent customer support at all times so if anything does go wrong, you know you're in safe hands.

10bet

This site has tons of great features that will make your experience with them worth it. You can bet on any sport and get boosted odds, plus there are combo bets for when you want to take advantage.

The website is also easy-to-use which makes betting quick while still being able to handle everything easily from one place. With a welcoming bonus and sleek mobile site, 10Bet is worth checking out for those looking to have some fun when making a bet. It offers an extensive library of different games from all over with fresh new promotions every day.

Star Sports

The UK's leading bookmaker has been around since 1999. They offer a more upmarket service than other companies and regularly reward loyal customers with discounts on future transactions.

Customer service is one of the many things that make Star Sports great. The live chat portal can answer your quickfire questions and provide you with relevant information promptly, so it's an excellent option for those looking to jump right into communicating about their sportsbook needs without having to wait.

Boyle Sports

The Irish firm, which has a long track record of success, began on the high street before branching out into internet gambling. You can be sure that if you win any prizes (subject to verification), your payment will come quickly and without question.

The Boyle Sports app has a simple design which makes it easy for users. The website of this betting site also provides all the information you need, including odds on each game as well as important fan favorites like props or sideshows.

888sport

This is one of the most trusted gambling sites in our industry, with a reputation dating back to 1997. In 2008 they launched an impressive sportsbook that has since made them even more popular than ever before. With 30 different games available and markets from all over the world, you're spoiled for choice when using this site.

The site has been designed to work seamlessly across all devices and operating systems so you're guaranteed an amazing experience no matter what gadget you have. In addition, they offer a very generous welcome bonus and ongoing promotions that keep things exciting for their customers.

Quinnbet

QuinnBet is an Irish betting exchange with a mission: to give back more than they take. Founded in 2017, it offers high levels of service at all times by providing quick responses. The team claims that most queries will be resolved within minutes through live chat or by phone call for those who need help faster than this!

The welcome bonus at the QuinnBet casino is another great way to get started. You'll have 50% covered up until £25. The 48-hour period starts as soon as your money has been credited to your account, and you'll need to wager it through five times before cashing out.

Smarmets

Smarmets is a must-have for any sports betting enthusiast. They offer great odds and low commissions, with the ability to bet both wins and losses! The odds may be unfair sometimes but at just a 2% commission rate they're catching up quickly enough.

When they were first starting, their goal was to apply financial trading principles of honest and user-centered betting onto an online platform. The result is a trusted site where users can find competitive odds across all sports and have access to safe transactions 24/7 without any hidden fees or risks involved.
