The Sims series has been around for a long time and has become a hit thanks to its weirdness and ability to draw players into its strange world. With The Sims you can do almost everything, from create Sims (characters), control all their activities from small to large and tell your own story. Along with that, the following in-game cheat codes will give you more power to do what you like.

How to use cheat codes

In The Sims 4, you can't simply enter a code and expect it to work. Instead, you need to enable the feature in the game first.

On Windows, you need to hold Ctrl + Shift + C (Command + Shift + C on Mac) to open the code entry bar.

Here, you enter 'testingcheats on' to activate the cheat feature code. To disable when not in use, enter 'testingcheats off'.

To open the code entry bar on PS4 and Xbox One, you'll need to press all the shoulder buttons simultaneously. On PS4 it's L1, R1, L2, R2 and on Xbox One it's LB, RB, LT, RT. Then you do the same as above and enter 'testingcheats on' to start being able to use cheats.

Thus, every time you need to cheat, you need to open the code entry bar, then enter the code and Enter. You will receive a notification when the correct code has been entered and it will indicate which code you have enabled.

Code to get money

Making money is no easy task in The Sims 4. Fortunately, there are a number of different cheats you can use to ensure you never run out of money. Please enter the following codes to earn money instantly.

1. rosebud – 1000 simoleon
2. kaching – 10000 simoleon
3. motherlode – 50000 simoleon

Alternatively, you can also enter Money + a specific number to receive the specified amount. For example, if you want 500 simoleons, enter Money 500. Note that this method will change the total amount you have, not add.

Building code

Some players just focus on building the perfect house in The Sims 4, and the game gives you the tools to make this easier. Take a look at the codes below:
