

The best Halloween movies of all time

The best Halloween movies of all time. Halloween is celebrated on the last day of October. On Halloween, people often decorate their homes with spooky, scary images and go out in the streets with weird, magical costumes. Shallow side

Halloween is celebrated on the last day of October. On Halloween, people often decorate their homes with spooky, scary images and go out in the streets with weird, magical costumes. Besides, the indispensable spiritual dish on this occasion are attractive horror movies.

Here is a list of movies you should watch for Halloween. These are not new movies in theaters, but they are also worth watching on Halloween.

1. Halloween (1978)

Once considered the best horror film on the subject of halloween in the 19th century. Halloween is scary but not gore like other horror movies. With the thrilling, suspenseful moments, it makes the viewer feel like they are immersed in the scary Halloween world and crime.

Synopsis: The film tells the story of a psychopathic murderer named Myer after a childhood trauma when the Halloween season comes. After escaping from a mental hospital, Myer sought to kill other minors. Doctor Loomis is the one who tries to chase him to stop him. With sensational, charismatic details, the film is one of the most watched works in the Halloween season in the 20th century.

2. Friday The 13th (1980)

As the film began to exploit the fear of Friday the 13th. Friday the 13th created a new breath in the horror genre and was positively appreciated by the filmmakers.

Synopsis of the film: The film tells the story of Alice Hardy and her friends go to the resort on the peaceful and romantic Camp Crystal Lake. The one who welcomed them was the widow Pamela Voorhees, who has been alone here since her only son, Jason Voorhees, was rumored to be drowning from a young age. While enjoying a happy summer vacation, a series of cruel deaths came to Alice and the unknown enemy's whereabouts. The house on the peaceful Camp Crystal lake is now an obsession with friends Alice.

3. Nightmare On Elm Street (1984)

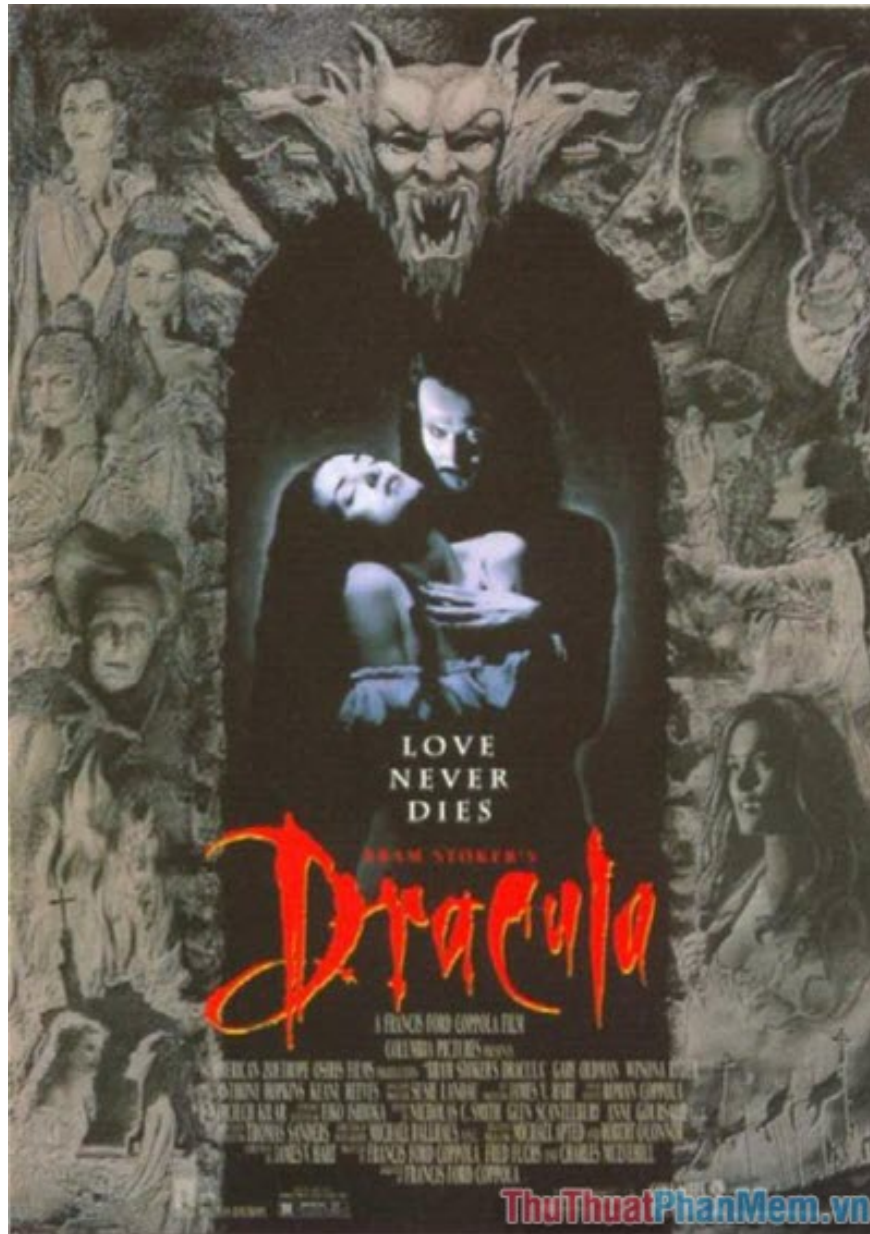

The film was a huge success when it grossed compared to the cost of more than $ 25 million in box office profits. In addition to the box office success, the film was highly rated by critics and the remake in 2010 was as successful as the original film.

Synopsis: In the early '80s, a psychopath named Freddy Krueger became known under the nickname 'Springwood Slasher', the killer of many children in dreams with a sharp fingerless glove. The great thing is, anyone who dies in a dream will die in real life. Nancy and her friend Tina decided to work together to learn about the evil man and find ways to destroy him.

4. Dracula (1992)

Exploiting the bloodthirsty vampire element in the legend. The film recounts the legends of vampires and the war with humanity.

Synopsis: In 1462, Vlad Dracula, prince of Wallachia, defeated the invading army of the Ottoman Empire. When he returned to the palace, he was extremely painful to learn that the beautiful wife Elisabeta had died. Someone floated that Dracula died and Elisabeta committed suicide to follow her husband to the afterlife. After his death, Dracula became a vampire with supernatural powers. Over 400 years later, the prince of Wallachia, now Count Dracula and has three more wives, discovers a young woman who looks exactly like his beloved Elisabeta. That was Mina. To restore the youthful appearance, Dracula was forced to suck human blood. He sought to approach Mina and find a way to help her remember her past life.

5. Scream (1996)

The film is really a highlight in the horror film series with exciting suspense that attracts viewers. In addition, the film also achieved great success in terms of revenue and was the premise for later Scream episodes.

Synopsis: Sidney and her group of friends are threatened by a murderer wearing a white mask. All doubts about her love. She thought this had something to do with her mother's death a year ago. Later, each of Sidney's friends dies mysteriously.

6. Saw (2004)

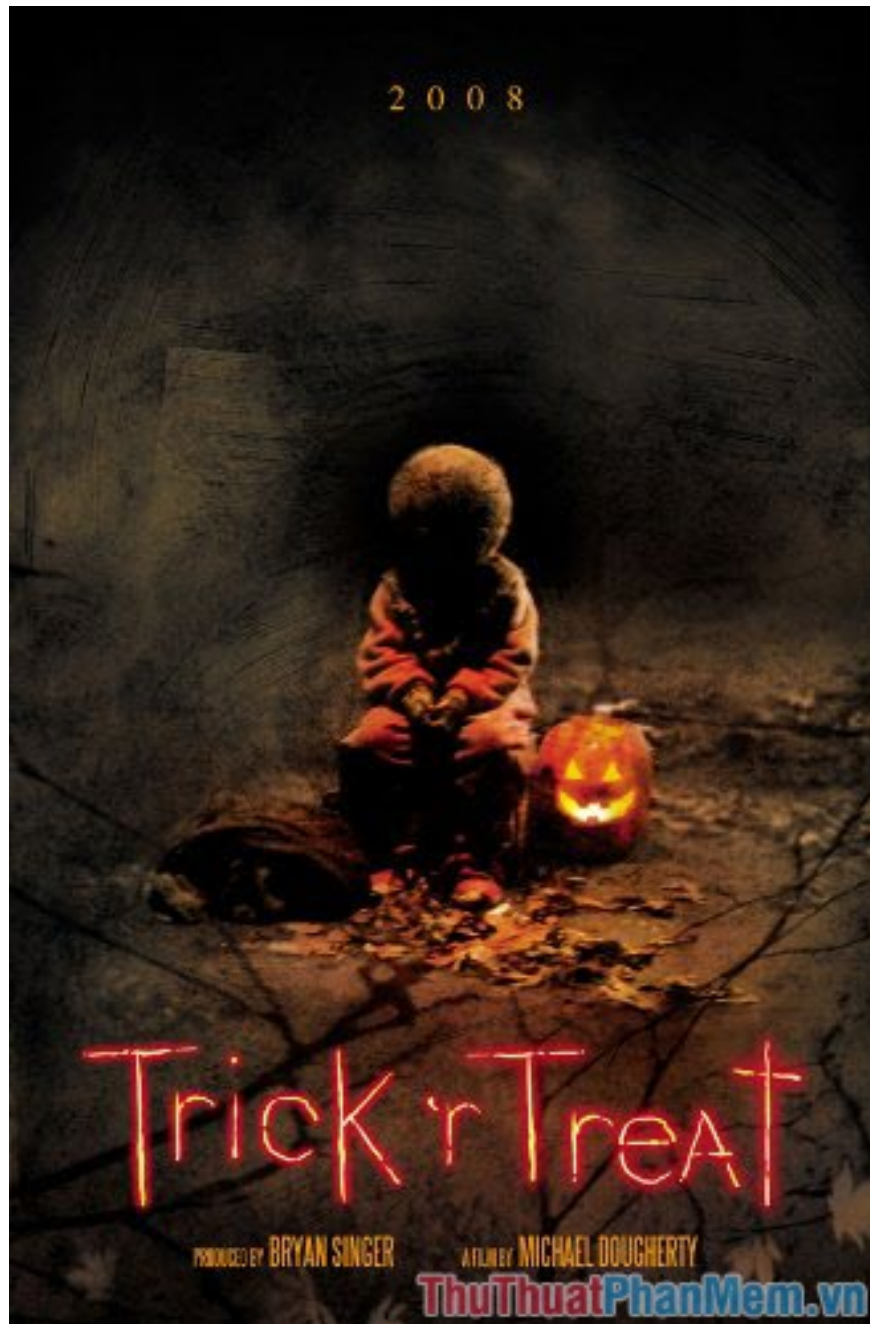

Horror film in the genre of torture that few people have the courage to watch every movie in the crazy games that serial killer Jigsaw shows. However, the profound lessons in the film that those who are brave enough to watch the entire episode will infer: they are lectures on survival.

Synopsis: The film tells the story of two strangers waking up to find themselves tied in a bathroom. None of them knew what had happened or what awaited them. There was a body of a man sprawled on the bathroom floor with another headless corpse being with them. And they realized that they were the last two victims of a psychopath, a man who enjoyed the trick of catching and killing strangers.

7. Trick 'r Treat (2007)

Rated in the top 20 horror movies on the topic of Halloween. The film is a must see for fans of horror films. Produced in the land of Hollywood movies, this thriller does not lack authentic horror scenes.

Synopsis: Exploiting the familiar Halloween theme, the film's content is a combination of 5 different horror stories and is connected in a very smart way through the appearance of Sam - a player. trick or treat the mysterious little kid always appears with the pumpkin mask in every story . Everything will not be worth mentioning until a young couple in the suburbs have tasted the danger of missing out smash the pumpkin before midnight.

8. I Saw The Devil (2010)

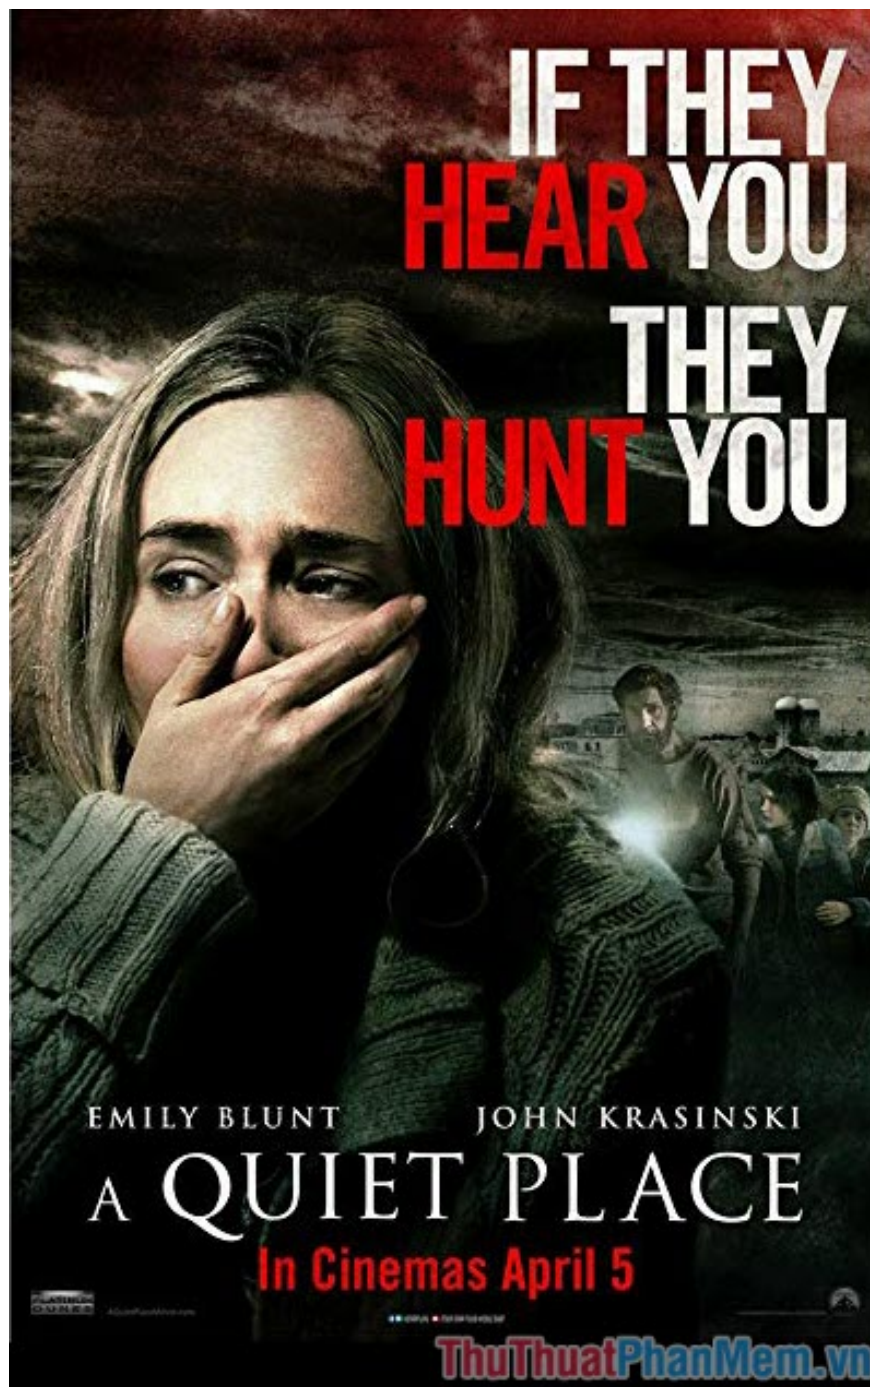

Produced and shot in South Korea. I Saw The Devil is a movie that is as attractive as works from Hollywood. A movie that still ends up making you think for a while and can watch the movie a few more times.

Synopsis: The film tells the story of a man in pain when his fiancée was murdered by a serial killer. He is a government agent and often fulfills his mission perfectly. However, not being able to protect the person he loves most makes him miserable, angry and vengeful to kill the murderer.

9. A Quiet Place (2018)

The film is sometimes silent moments, suspense with the sound is the highlight of the film. The film makes a mark with sound storytelling and a subtle integration of touching stories about family affection.

Synopsis: The film is about a normal family with a couple and two children living in a completely isolated area in the forest. However, they live with the supernatural forces that are extremely sensitive to sound. To be able to live peacefully, they have set the rules of survival that no member is allowed to violate such as just going to the marked points, exchanging in sign language, laughing out loud . .

In a joke, his son accidentally made a loud noise. Since then the whole family has been hunted down by dangerous forces that no one could imagine.

10. Venom (2018)

This is a remarkable movie in Halloween 2018. Get the theme of anti-hero Venom. The film with scary details mixed with humor gives the audience laughter and meaningful lessons about human love, ambition and moral issues.

Synopsis: Reporter Eddie Brock (played by Tom Hardy) secretly follows an evil conspiracy of an organization and was unlucky to be infected with alien symbiotic (Symbiote) and has since no longer own yourself physically and mentally. This has gradually turned him into the darkest and most dangerous monster against Spider-Man - Venom.

With 10 movies on the subject of horror for Halloween, hope readers have moments of fun watching movies with friends and relatives on the upcoming Halloween!

You finished reading the article "The best Halloween movies of all time" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
