

The EeeBook X205 goes on sale for 4.2 million dong

The Asus EeeBook X205 impresses at IFA in September because of its beautiful design and attractive configuration. The laptop running Windows 8.1 has just officially been on the shelf for $ 199 (4.2 million).

The Asus EeeBook X205 impresses at IFA in September because of its beautiful design and attractive configuration. The laptop running Windows 8.1 has just officially been on the shelf for $ 199 (4.2 million).

The EeeBook X205 is aimed at a stylish, thin, lightweight design with a thickness of 17.7 mm, weighs approximately 1 kg and has a large battery life of up to 12 hours.

The EeeBook X205 has an 11.6-inch screen with a resolution of 1366x768 pixels. The microprocessor Bay Trail-T quad core Z3735 clocked at 1.33GHz, Intel HD Graphics integrated graphics. Laptop with 2GB RAM and modest storage capacity: only 32GB.

This laptop's webcam has VGA resolution. The connection ports include two USB 2.0 ports, a micro HDMI port, Bluetooth 4.0 support.

The EeeBook X205 is now available on Amazon and major retailers around the world.

You finished reading the article "The EeeBook X205 goes on sale for 4.2 million dong" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.